16TH YEAR. NO. 7.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1900.

TWO CENTS

CHINA DEFIES THE NATIONS

All the Foreign Legations at Peking Have Been Destroyed By the Boxers.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR KILLED

The Powers Will Scarcely Hesitate Now to Declare Open War on Celestials.

SITUATION IS VERY CRITICAL

HONG KONG, June 16.—(Special.)—A Tien Tsin dispatch says that all the legations at Peking have been destroyed, and that the German ambassador, Baron Von Ketteler, has been murdered.

All the indications point to uncoordinated alliance between the imperial troops loyal to the empress and the Boxers. The force landed by the powers is inadequate to deal with the Chinese force guarding the approaches to Peking, and it has been the aim so far to prevent a collision until the landing party under Admiral Seymour should be strong enough to force matters.

The destruction of the legations at Peking and the murder of the German ambassador, either of them enough to cause open declaration of hostilities against China, will almost certainly result in war if confirmed. The situation is most critical. England, engaged in the Transvaal, is not as ready for immediate action as are the other European powers. Russia seems to have the advantage in readiness and ability to take a leading part in suppressing Chinese disorder, and it is believed she will use this advantage to the utmost.

The interest of the United States is believed to be confined to protection of American residents and interests. The other powers engaged are using a similar plea as a cover for seeking fat slices should China be partitioned.

WEAVER BENEFIT

Was a Gratifying Success and About $150 Was Raised for the Young Man.

The willingness of East Liverpool people to assist in a good cause was shown by the attendance of the benefit at Rock Springs park last evening. It was given to raise money for the benefit of Harry Weaver, who lost his foot in an accident a short time ago. Almost 800 people were in attendance and about $150 will be the amount which the committee will have to turn over to the unfortunate lad.

The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music, a midget cake walk, which was greatly enjoyed by all, followed by a pleasant hour of dancing.

Much credit is due to those who assisted in the exercises and to the young friends of Weaver, who were so thoughtful and active in getting up the commendable affair. Those who took a leading part in bringing the benefit to so successful a result were Lyman Rinehart, George Bevington, Val Waggle, Arthur Hymes, Christ Pussey and Wink McKinney.

Mashed His Finger.

George Barton, a workman at Brunt's pottery, caught the front finger of his left hand under a die while working there this morning. The finger was mashed and it was necessary to amputate the finger at the first joint. Dr. Ikirt performed the operation.

READY FOR CONVENTION.

Arrangements Completed for Seventh Judicial Circuit Nominating Convention, Steubenville.

Steubenville, June 15.—(Special.)—A meeting of the executive committee of the seventh judicial circuit of Ohio was held at the office of the clerk of courts today, Hon. J. C. Heinlein, of Belmont county, presiding.

The object of the meeting was to select temporary officers and make arrangements for the judicial convention to be held in Steubenville September 4. Those in attendance were Messrs. J. C. Heinlein, of Belmont county; also proxy for I. B. Cameron, of Columbiana county, and S. F. Hanselman, of Portage; Judge W. G. Shotwell, of Harrison; T. A. L. Thompson, of Jefferson; Gen. Gregg, who represented by proxy H. G. Eckley, of Carroll; Dio Rogers, proxy for Homer Harper, of Lake; Judge Miller, proxy for T. B. Rouse, Monroe; R. G. Richards, proxy for C. L. Taylor, Ashtabula. The temporary officers selected for the convention September 4 were as follows: Chairman, James Kennedy, Youngstown; secretary, C. L. Taylor, Ashtabula. T. A. L. Thompson was named as committeeman to arrange for the use of the city opera house, appoint his own sub-committees and complete all arrangements for the convention. Hon. John M. Cook, of Steubenville, is unopposed for the nomination.

ANTI-SALOON MEETING.

Representative Clark and Other Leaders Will Speak at Wellsville Tomorrow Afternoon.

The local option mass meeting arranged for tomorrow afternoon by the Wellsville Ministerial association will be held in the United Presbyterian church, that city, at 3:30 East Liverpool time. The chairman of the meeting has not yet been selected, though it is likely Rev. L. Finley Laverty will be chosen, as he is the president of the Wellsville Ministerial association.

The principal speaker at the meeting will be Hon. Thomas Clark, state senator, and the author of the Clark local option bill, which was defeated at the last session of the legislature. Several members of the State Anti-Saloon league will attend the meeting and will probably speak. Among the Anti-Saloon league men who are expected are Rev. Gilbert Raynor, of Columbus, and Rev. J. C. Jackson, of Columbus.

A NUISANCE.

Board of Health Will Take Action in Regard to the Dish Water on Church Alley.

The board of health will probably hold a special meeting Monday evening for the purpose of taking action in regard to people letting dish water run over Church alley. The water matter will be thoroughly discussed and it is probable it will be declared a nuisance and the people told to connect with the sewer.

No Arrangements.

No arrangements have yet been made toward holding services at Spring Grove camp ground this year. A number of families from this city and Wellsville will move to the ground next week.

ARGUMENTS IN BILLINGSLEY SUIT

Referee Sanderson's Decision May Be Known In a Month or not Until September.

TWO EAST LIVERPOOL APPEALS

NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Referee Sanderson, of Youngstown, is hearing the arguments in the case of Receiver I. B. Cameron, of the First National bank of this city vs. N. B. Billingsley today. The evidence was taken about a month ago. The receiver sued to recover $50,000 alleged due the bank from Billingsley, who claimed the bank owed him $3,000.

Referee Sanderson has until the first of September to return his decision, but it is expected it will be handed down within a month.

THAT HOTEL SUIT.

Mrs. Studenroth Appeals From Justice McLane's Decision in the Lena Logan Case.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Lena Logan vs. Martha Studenroth is an appeal from Justice McLane's court in East Liverpool, which has been filed in common pleas court. Plaintiff says that she was a guest at the National House, East Liverpool, on April 7 last, when she had $55 stolen from her. Defendant was proprietress of the hotel and plaintiff sued her to recover the money. Justice McLane gave plaintiff judgment for the amount and defendant appeals.

BARBER'S FIXTURES.

Furniture Company Says Defendants Are Unlawfully Withholding Goods Worth $92.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—On June 5 the J. P. Collins Furniture company sued W. H. Pollock and John B. McKinnon in Justice Rose's court, East Liverpool, to recover possession of some barber's furniture and fixtures which plaintiff claims defendants unlawfully withheld from him. The justice decided in favor of the plaintiff and defendants appealed. The value of the goods is $92.25.

Asks Directions.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Ross W. Firestone, administrator, has filed a petition in common pleas court vs. James Charters, and about 50 other defendants, in which he asks the court to direct him in the distribution of the estate of John K. Snodgrass, late of Center township.

Probate Court.

Lisbon, June 17.—(Special.)—The will of James B. Post, of Salem, was admitted to probate in Judge Boone's office yesterday afternoon.

Injured His Thumb.

Fred Margroff, son of George Margroff, met with an accident this morning which resulted in the loss of the end of his thumb near the first joint.

He was assisting in freezing ice cream and took hold of the freezer before it had stopped running, catching his left thumb. The wound, which was a very painful one, was dressed by Dr. Ikirt.

WERE BADLY SCARED.

Aroused During the Night—Two Stories About the Cause of the Disturbance.

Two young lady delegates from Pennsylvania who attended the Christian Endeavor convention, stopping at the Thompson House while in the city, had a scare last night that will cause them to long remember their visit to this city. They retired about 11 o'clock. About 2 o'clock they awakened the guests sleeping on the same floor by a number of screams which left no doubt in the minds of anyone that they were badly frightened. The cause of their screams, they said, was the sight of a colored man endeavoring to make his way through the transom of their door. Their account of the story is that when they were awakened the man was head and shoulders through the transom. When he saw, or rather heard that he was noticed, he immediately, in compliance with their vigorous commands, "took his form off that door." His disappearance was followed by a crash, caused by the breaking of several water pitchers which stood on a radiator just outside the door. The young ladies thought they recognized the intruder, but have not filed any complaint, not wishing to give the matter publicity.

The hotel people give another story in the main differing greatly from the above. They state that the pitchers, which were kept standing on the radiator fell, through the jarring of the porter running up and down the stairs, or some other cause. They say that there is no evidence to show that any one tried to get through the transom, and that the young ladies probably were nervous on account of the strange surroundings and that the dark form over the door was a hallucination. The colored man seemed as badly frightened as the occupants of the room and denied knowing anything of the cause of the disturbance.

Whether the form was real or imaginary the young ladies had a bad scare and spent a restless night.

SWEET SINGERS.

Mrs. F. C. O'Rourke and Miss Edith Caler Made Rich Melody.

Lovers of vocal music had a treat last night at the Methodist Protestant church, when Miss Edith Caler and Mrs. F. C. O'Rourke rendered a charming solo, in superb voice and manner. These ladies won the very warm commendation of music lovers in our city during their brief stay in our midst.

AN ACCIDENT.

Charles Guthrie Rode His Bicycle in Front of a Buggy.

Charlie Guthrie while riding a bicycle this afternoon rode in front of a horse driven by Harvey Calvin. He was knocked down and tramped on, but was not badly injured. His wheel was broken.

Twin Daughters.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Komel, of Ralston's crossing, East End, twin daughters.

CLOSE OF THE CONVENTION

Y. P. S. C. E. Conference Came to an End Last Evening In a Blaze of

MISSIONARY ENTHUSIASM

HAD BEEN MOST SUCCESSFUL

The Y. P. S. C. E. convention at the M. P. church held its closing session last evening in a blaze of missionary enthusiasm. The large and beautiful audience room of the church was filled to its utmost capacity with an enthusiastic audience. The song and praise service led by Rev. W. S. Fleming, of Turtle Creek, Pa., was heartily entered into and enjoyed by the audience. Rev. J. C. Cobb, of Fairchance, who was on the program as leader of this service, was unable to be present. Among the musical features of the evening's session was a solo by Miss Edith Caler, of New Brighton, and a duet by Miss Caler and Mrs. F. C. O'Rourke.

Hon. H. R. Calhoun, of New Brighton, delivered a masterful address holding the closest attention of his auditors. This was followed by an address by Rev. J. H. Lucas, D. D., of Allegheny, on consecration. A missionary offering was called for and the audience responded cheerfully and $287 in cash was raised. The East Liverpool society gave $65 of this amount. The announcement of this splendid contribution to the cause of missions awakened the audience to the point of hearty applause.

It was agreed on every hand that this was one of the most successful conventions ever held by the union. The delegates were enthusiastic in their words of praise for the hospitality shown them by the members of the local union and the citizens of East Liverpool.

Not Until July.

The petition of the ministerial association asking that the saloons be closed will not, says the Evening Record, be presented to the council of Wellsville until the regular meeting on the first Monday evening in July. Members of the council have told members of the ministerial association that the petition could not be considered at a called meeting, and that the association would better wait until the regular meeting in July to present the petition. The ministerial association is agreeable to this arrangement and it will present the petition at the July meeting.

Union Meeting.

The young people's societies of all the East Liverpool churches will hold a union meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the First Presbyterian church and promises to be very interesting.

Car Jumped the Track.

A street car jumped the track about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon near Harker's pottery. The passengers were badly shaken up and about half an hour was occupied in getting the car back on the track.

HIS SON'S BODY.

ENGINEER HOLLINGER CALLED IN TIME TO RECOVER IT.

Young Hollinger While Fishing at Lisbon Dam Lost His Balance and Was Drowned.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon the 9-year-old son of Henry Hollinger, chief engineer at the mill, was drowned just below the dam at the lower end of town. He and several other small boys were fishing from the high stone wall below the dam, when he, in some manner, lost his balance and fell into the water. The other boys ran screaming for help and their cries were at length heard by Mr. Hollinger, who lives near by, but when he reached the place and found the body, life was extinct.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Readjustment of Prices Pointed Out as Looking Favorable—Wheat Advanced—Iron Market.

NEW YORK, June 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, said in part:

A season of declining prices is never wholly agreeable to business men whose stocks on hand are losing part of their volume. Yet there are times when return to the highest prosperity in business is not possible except through readjustment of prices. The highest prosperity the country had ever reached, prior to the panic, was in 1892, with prices averaging not quite 75 per cent of their average in 1890. After great depression for several years the highest point reached with last year's recovery was 80 per cent, March 16, but the gradual yielding has already returned the general average of prices to a shade less than 75 per cent, practically where it was with the highest prosperity in 1892.

The output of iron furnaces June 1 was 376 tons, an increase of 2,526 tons, making the yield only 1,638 tons less than at the highest point ever reached, Feb. 1. But the increase of unsold stocks to $39,480 tons, about $5,000 tons in May, discloses a larger decline than was expected in the new business, upon which nearly all the works and furnaces have now to rely, and reports that furnaces of considerable capacity have been already closed this month seem likely to be correct. Within a week or two the labor organizations and the employers will be discussing new demands for higher wages and shorter hours, and the closing of many works for lack of orders will have much influence about that time. Prices are gradually changing, anthracite No. 1 to $20 and Pittsburgh forge, grey, 1.50. After the close, forge to $17.50, and sales of bars are reported there at 1.50. After the closing of furnaces and works has more nearly adjusted present supply to the demand, the fact that many large operations are held back until prices have been adjusted will have its proper influence.

No further change appears this week in the wool markets, although their stagnation, with irregular prices for goods beyond the most favored staples, still indicates a downward tendency. Silk and hemp also have gone lower, and the recent fall in rubber helps new business.

Wheat has been advanced nearly 3 cents. Failures for the first week of June were, in amount, $2,118,810, of which $1,092,870 were in manufacturing and $83,236 in trading concerns.

Failures for the week have been 162 in the United States, against 156 last year, and 21 in Canada, against 13 last year.

Large Offerings of Northern Pacific, but Stock Fell Into Quietude—The Bond Market.

NEW YORK, June 16.—A number of active stocks were not dealt in Friday to the extent of a single share, and it was long after noon before such a speculative leader as Brooklyn Transit or Manhattan made its appearance on the tape at all. There was some desultory speculation in sugar during the morning at an advance of about a point, but that stock fell back into the rut of dullness which characterized the whole market. Large offerings of Northern Pacific began to appear near 2 o'clock, at which time the directors were assembling to take action on the semi-annual dividend. The stock fell into quietude in the last hour, and hung about a point below Thursday night's level. It was not until after the close of the market that the announcement was made that only a 1 per cent dividend had been declared for the six months' period.

The action taken proved a complete surprise, and what the effect may be upon the general market it is impossible to foresee. It is a clear announcement of the formulated judgment of the directors, heretofore informally announced by officials of the company that the current high level of earnings cannot be maintained. It will be accepted also as confirmation of the reports of extensive damage to the northwestern wheat crop. The price movement in Friday's market was irregular and without significance. Not much attention was paid to the forecast of today's bank statement, but it is expected that a loss of cash by the banks will be disclosed, owing to the $3,500,000 export of gold, which seems to have been only partly offset by the receipt of cash from the interior.

New York exchange at Chicago, however, has moved upwards during the week and Friday touched 20 cents premium, showing the movement of currency still strongly towards New York. According to the statements from the leading banks the net loss in cash will probably be upwards of a million.

The bond market shared fully in the dullness of the stock market and price changes were insignificant. Total sales, par value, $890,000. United States bonds were unchanged in bid quotations.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, June 16.—After a period of weakness early, the wheat market Friday turned strong on unfavorable crop reports, closing 1¢ 1/2 over Thursday. Corn closed 1/4¢ and oats 1/2¢ improved. Provisions closed steady.

EVENTS BRIEFLY NARRATED

Miss Zoni Harvey, former engrossing clerk of the Arkansas state senate, burned to death, Eureka Springs.

Structural steel men made these cuts, at meeting in New York: Seams and channels, $1.05 per 100 pounds, and angles $1.93 per 100 pounds. These are New York prices. The price heretofore has been $2.40 per 100 pounds for each product.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning June 17, "Abiding in Christ"—Text, John xv, 1-10.

"Abide in me and I in you."

To abide is to stay, to settle down from moving and set up a home. It is not boarding around, but going to housekeeping. Some folks visit awhile with Jesus, make a fashionable call upon Him, leave their card perhaps, but they have not yet gone into partnership, much less begun to live with Him. Perhaps it would startle them to think of eating and drinking with Him familiarly and constantly. At any rate, they never have thought of it yet. So far as comradeship with Him, participation in feeling and occupation and purpose, living with and fervently loving Him, all that seems so far off, so indefinite, unreal and almost irrelevant.

We are religious; of course we are. We love to take part in the services of the church, to read the prayers and responses, to sing hymns and anthems, especially if we have good voices, musical taste and culture. We enjoy the aesthetics of the service in architecture, stained glass windows, organ tones and sermonic literature. All is so nice. We do confess our sins—"we have done many things we ought not to have done and have left undone many things we ought to have done. Lord have mercy upon us!" We are Christians.

But this abiding Christ—that is another thing. Our business, our social life, contains so much that is out of harmony with the idea of His continual presence. Really we cannot change things. We must live in the world, and so long as we do we must conform more or less to its requirements. And so it comes about that we have never lived on familiar terms of intimate friendship with Jesus.

We appreciate the churchly forms of our religion. We are attached to them and would not wish to do without them. Our presence, our money, our influence, are freely given for their support. But to live with Jesus Christ in the factory, running the next loom, in the counting room, at the same desk as senior partner, in the legislature as presiding officer, in the court as chief justice, at the ballot box as inspector, in the home, on the street, at the theater, on the ballroom floor, at the card table, at the banquet—in all business and all pleasure as leader and closest friend—how does that seem?

An Honored Leader.

Mr. Leslie M. Shaw, the governor of Iowa, was born in Vermont in 1848. He went to Iowa when a young man, joined the Methodist Episcopal church in 1872 and has ever been faithfully devoted to her interests. He has been superintendent of the Sunday school in his home church and president of the state Epworth League. He has been delegate to the last four general conferences and was elected as lay delegate to the one just closed in Chicago by acclamation. Being poor, he worked his way through Cornell college, studied law and practiced in the highest court in the state. He has recently received from his alma mater the degree of LL. D. It is a gratifying sign of the times to find the people honoring with positions in church and state men of sterling integrity and Christian devotion. It is as gratifying to find men high in position in political matters still true to God and securing time in the midst of pressing duties of business to attend to the work of the church in private and public.

Profanity is forbidden by both the army and the navy regulations of the United States.

Sympathy may help a wounded heart but it won't heal a wounded limb.

That fact is so obvious that you wonder why any one can offer "sympathy" as the chief feature of treatment for the delicate diseases of women. Yet women are invited to "write to a woman who can sympathize with woman," and the theme of their correspondence is to be the delicate, difficult and dangerous diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength. It is true that such offers are combined with an offer of "medical advice." But medical advice can only be given by a competent physician, and no mention is made in such offers of a physician's or doctor's advice. It is not offered because it cannot be given. The offer is not being made by a qualified physician.

The offer of free consultation by letter, made to ailing women by Doctor R. V. Pierce, has behind it a physician's ability. Dr. Pierce is consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Associated with Dr. Pierce is a staff of nearly a score of physicians, each man a specialist. In a practice of over thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff have treated successfully more than half a million women, who have been cured of debilitating drains, inflammations, ulcerations and female troubles. The age, experience and skill of Dr. Pierce give him a supreme advantage in his chosen field of diseases of women.

You can write to Dr. Pierce without fear and without fee. Every letter is read privately and answered confidentially, the answer being sent in a plain envelope, without any printing upon it.

Education in Steubenville.

Steubenville Herald-Star.

The statement made and repeated by a well known member of the school board that he has twice been approached with offers of money to throw his vote to a particular candidate for superintendent of schools, over which the board has been deadlocked for some time, is creating no end of talk in political and educational circles. The member who was thus tempted says he was first offered $250 to change his vote, and on refusing to sell himself was approached the second time with the inquiry: "Would $500 be an inducement?" This offer was also turned down, and the briber left in disgust. The member refuses to give the name of the man who attempted to bribe him, but if an investigation follows he may tell.

Pottery Whistle Weather.

The East Palestine Pottery company has made arrangements whereby they can get the weather predictions for 24 hours in advance from the United States department of agriculture. The reports are wired to Sam C. Scott at New Waterford daily and Mr. Scott will phone the report to the pottery. By a system of signals given on the pottery whistle the people in the city and on the surrounding farms, within hearing distance of the whistle, will know what the weather "probabilities" are for the succeeding 24 hours. The signal will be given at 11 o'clock a.m. fast time.

School Change.

Superintendent Burris has resigned his position as superintendent to the Salem schools and will take a post-graduate course at Harvard. J. S. Johnson, for three years principal of the Salem schools, was promoted to the superintendency, with a salary of $1,600.

An Enjoyable Reception.

The friends of Lyman Earl and wife held a reception at their home on Fourth street last evening. Mr. Earl and bride returned last evening from their bridal tour in the west. The affair was greatly enjoyed by all.

SOUTH SIDE.

Belongs to the Trust.

The Chester rolling mill passed today into the hands of the American Sheet Steel company, better known as the trust. The last rolls were received yesterday and were unloaded and placed in position last night. The mill is now in shape to make sheet iron. About 20 men have been working on the plant for the Chester Rolling Mill company. These were discharged and quit work last night as soon as the new management took charge.

Broke Her Arm.

Mrs. Prince McNeil, of New Cumberland, fell and broke her arm near Fairview. Mr. and Mrs. McNeil had driven out to their farm near Fairview and were working in a potato patch when one of the horses started to go through where the potatoes were planted and Mrs. McNeil, in the effort to stop the horse, fell and broke her arm near the wrist. She was taken home and Dr. Beaumont reduced the fracture.

They Are Champions.

The match games of horse shoe for the championship of the Southside were finished last evening. Finley and Messer were the winners, taking 8 games out of 11 played. They stand ready to defend their claim to the championship against all comers.

Baccalaureate Sermon.

Rev. G. E. Fisher will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the students of the Tri-State normal at Fairview tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The services will be held in the Christian church.

Drained the Pond.

The sewer was completed as far as the railroad yesterday and today was finished under the track. The pond which has long been an eyesore, was drained completely, and is now no more.

Building a Residence.

I. W. Moore yesterday began work on a new residence, which he will have erected on his lot on the corner of Second street and Carolina avenue.

Children's Day.

Extensive preparations have been made for the children's day exercises to be held in the Presbyterian church at Fairview next Sunday evening.

Personals.

Miss Mary MacLane is spending a few days with friends in the country. Henry Greek and Austin McCoy returned yesterday from New Cumberland. G. E. Brennehan, of Arroyo, was a Chester visitor yesterday.

HOW IT'S BACKED.

Undoubted Reliability Is Expressed In East Liverpool Endorsement.

What you want is home endorsement. The backing of people you know.

East Liverpool proof for East Liverpool people.

That's what follows here.

Surely no better backing can be had than the following from Mrs. Edmund Purton, of 233 Ravine street, who says: "I had backache, headache and other symptoms of the complaint for two years. When the last attack came on I went to the W. & W. pharmacy and got a box of Doan's kidney pills. In a very short time I was relieved. My husband, who is a painter, decorator and paper hanger of the firm of Purton & Jackson, was seized with a severe attack of kidney complaint. Some years ago he contracted a fever which left his kidneys in bad shape, and ever afterwards he had more or less trouble. When suffering last a gentleman advised him to try Doan's kidney pills, emphasizing the fact that he had been a sufferer with kidney disease, confined to his bed; his physician informed him that perhaps he would be able to get him up in two or three weeks; that he used Doan's kidney pills and in a day or two he was able to be up and about his business. My husband got a box at once. They were prompt in relieving him. We can heartily recommend Doan's kidney pills."

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning June 17—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Abiding in Christ.—John xv, 1-10.

In all probability it was while walking up the Mount of Olives to the garden of Gethsemane that Jesus spoke this discourse on the vine and the branches. The vineyards on the slope of Olivet would naturally suggest the beautiful figure that he uses to illustrate the necessary and vital union between Himself and His disciples. Christ is the vine, the Father the husbandman, Christian people the branches and Christian life and works the fruit to be born. And all depends upon union between Christ and the Christian. We must abide in Him and He in us, as the branch abides in the vine.

Union with Christ is a real union. The branch actually abides in the vine. It has a vital, living union with it. The union between Christ and His disciple is no less real. We abide in Him, and He abides in us. We abide in Him by faith. He abides in us by His Holy Spirit, but the union is no less vital and real. We actually abide in Him and receive our life from Him, as the branch abides in the vine and receives its life from it. "It is no longer I that live," says the great apostle, "but Christ liveth in me." This is the ideal relation between Christ and His disciples, and it is no imaginary, mythical relation, but a real, vital union.

Union with Christ is a necessity. It is necessary if we are to bear fruit, the object of Christianity. "Abide in Me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself except it abide in the vine, no more can ye except ye abide in me." The life and fruitfulness of the branch depend upon its union with the vine. So it is with the Christian. Apart from Christ he can do nothing. He depends absolutely upon Christ for power to live aright and to do what Christ would have him do. As Christians we want to live Christian lives and to bring forth Christian fruit. Let us therefore remember that these results can only be accomplished by abiding in Christ.

Disunion with Christ means spiritual death and destruction. The branch that has no living connection with the vine and hence bears no fruit is cast forth and is burned. This, in the spiritual world, is the penalty of disunion with Christ. Spiritual death awaits the man who abides not in Christ. He is cast forth—forth into outer darkness, away from God, away from heaven. Let us earnestly strive to avoid such a fate. Let us abide in Christ by faith. Let us be united to Him by an imperishable love. Let us be bound to Him by good works. Let us earnestly pray that He in the person of the Spirit, may make our hearts His abiding place, and then all shall be well with us. "In you; you in Me."

THE PRAYER MEETING.

This is a very important topic, containing as it does a most precious and yet often unrealized and unappreciated Christian truth. If possible, get the pastor to open the discussion of the topic by a short explanatory address.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1899.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.

take away. The world's suffering is not all physical and its need is not bread alone. Under the heaviest burdens of this life throbs the undying consciousness of the soul's deep needs. We have a commendable interest in humanity and a pardonable pride in the future of our church. But if we would best serve humanity and insure the future of our church, we must equip it for the great work of satisfying the hungry soul and filling the sad heart with gladness. No matter what special lines of missionary effort are adopted, the church will never outgrow its God-given mission to minister to all of the vital needs of men and to spread abroad in the world its comfort, its solace and its inspiration.—Universalist Leader.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1900.

This Date In History—June 16.

- 1564—Hugo the Great, father of Hugh Capet, French king, died.
- 1599—Christopher (Kit) Marlowe, English dramatic poet, killed at Deptford; born in Canterbury 1564.
- 1805—Napoleon defeated Blucher at Ligny, and the allies defeated Ney at Quatre Bras, both preparatory to Waterloo. The defeat of Blucher at Ligny led to the battle on the field of Waterloo. Blucher retreated from Ligny to Waterloo. Ney's battle at Quatre Bras detained Wellington's troops and prevented the junction of the Prussians and English. Wellington retired to Waterloo to unite with Blucher. The fate of Napoleon was settled by these preliminaries, for his salvation lay in keeping the allies divided.
- 1866—Prussia set her armies in motion, and the single campaign war with Austria began.
- 1896—Edwin Percy Whipple, author, died in Boston; born 1819.
- 1897—George E. Barnes, a pioneer in San Francisco journalism, died in that city; born 1827.

BADEN-POWELL'S WORK.

Some Boers Surrendered in Western Transvaal—Cronje Decided to Surrender.

LONDON, June 16.—Lord Roberts reported under date of Pretoria, June 13, giving further description of the evacuation of the Boers. He said they weakened their front by strengthening their flanks, and he directed Hamilton to attack and grand work was done by his men. Casualties less than 100. Hamilton was slightly wounded, but able to continue work. Diamond hill was thus taken and the Boers retired. They were being followed by mounted corps, June 14.

The rest of Lord Roberts' dispatch dealt with the casualties, and was not given by The Associated Press, and General Baden-Powell's movements in Western Transvaal, with 800 men, was systematically re-establishing order and collecting arms and supplies. About 600 Boers had surrendered and Baden-Powell captured 230 prisoners.

According to Baden-Powell's report, the Boers will readily discuss terms of surrender, and they all appreciate the work of pacification performed by his troops.

Another dispatch from Roberts, dated from Pretoria, June 14, told that Klerksdorf had surrendered on June 9 to armed party sent by Hunter; and that Kitchener reported that Boers, June 14, attacked a construction train, near Rhenoster, and he sent mounted troops, who drove them off, and one man was killed and 11 wounded. Roberts reported a messenger from Klerksdorf said Cronje had decided to surrender.

TEMPERANCE CONGRESS CLOSED.

Reception Tendered to Delegates by London's Mayor.

LONDON, June 16.—The world temperance congress came to a close with a reception tendered the delegates at the Mansion House by the lord mayor, Mr. A. J. Newton. The American delegates have undoubtedly impressed the United Kingdom delegates with the progress of the temperance cause in the United States, which has been the subject of many congratulations.

Prior to the reception the congress was entertained at dinner by Sir George Williams, founder of the Band of Hope union. Mr. Joshua Bailey, of Philadelphia, one of the speakers at the dinner, advocated prohibition, which he had also urged at a previous session.

Germans Have American in Custody.

HAMILTON, O., June 16.—Maurice Tiehm, a German-American who came to this city in 1892 and at once took out naturalization papers, has appealed to Secretary of State Hay in the case of his son, Albert, who is said to be a prisoner at Danuskirsch, Alsace, and in great danger of being drafted into the German army, though he is an American citizen. Albert was on a visit to his birthplace when arrested.

The ball game at Rock Springs yesterday between the West End and Murphys was by far the best game of the season and the West Ends won by a score of 4 to 1.

Murphys went to bat and Phillips went out on a pop up to Gallagher. Chambers singled to middle, Mackall hit to Heckathorne and a neat double play followed.

For West End Smith struck out, Miller singled to middle, Brant struck out, Gibson was hit by a pitched ball, Heckathorne made a single, but Jenkins retired the side by flying out to Phillips.

In the second McShane flew out to J. Firth, C. Gallagher went out from Heckathorne to F. Gallagher and G. Firth went out from Hobbs to F. Gallagher. West End scored two in their half. Hobbs was hit by a pitched ball, stole second and went to third on a hit by F. Gallagher and came home on a passed ball. Gallagher went to second on a throw home, went to third on a passed ball and came home on a passed ball. Smith went out from C. Gallagher to McShane. Miller drew a base on balls, Brant reached first on an error by Tomlinson, but Gibson retired the side by flying out to McShane.

In the third Tomlinson flew out to Brant, Allison flew out to Jenkins, Welch reached first on an error by Smith, but Phillips struck out again and retired the side. West End received a goose egg. Heckathorne flew out to Tomlinson, Jenkins went out from short to first, Hobbs made a hit and was thrown out trying to steal second.

In the fourth Chambers made his second single to middle and was again doubled up, Mackall hitting to Heckathorne. McShane went out from Heckathorne to F. Gallagher. West End made two in their half. P. Gallagher went out from Welch to McShane, J. Firth singled to right and went to second on a passed ball. Smith singled to left and Firth went to third. Smith stole second and Miller reached first on a fielder's choice, Firth scoring. Smith scored on a hit by Brant, and Miller was thrown out from Welch to Phillips in an attempt to take third on the hit. Gibson hit to middle for a single and Brant was thrown out from Allison to Welch in an attempt to purloin third. This ended the run getting of the West Ends.

Murphys made their only run in the fifth. Gallagher flew out to J. Firth. G. Firth hit one between the second baseman and middle fielder. It would have been easy for J. Firth, but Heckathorne tried to cover too much ground and dropped the ball. Tomlinson flew out to Jenkins, Allison single and Firth scored on a two-bagger by Welch. Phillips retired the side by striking out.

Notes of the Game.

Carey makes a good umpire, but he should follow up all plays instead of deciding them from the center of the diamond. He may be correct in regard to his foul and fair balls, but if he would go over to the base line when they are hit he would prevent much unnecessary rag chewing.

McShane is certainly the first baseman of the league and saves the members of his club many errors by his fine work.

Phillips had a chance to score runs enough to tie the score, but struck out both times he was up with men on bases.

The West End club is quite a formidable aggregation when they have all their players in the game.

There were more double plays made than in any two games so far this season.

Work on the backstop has been commenced.

CAPTURED OUT IN COLORADO

George Heckathorne Held by the Sheriff of Otero County at La Junta.

COST $200 TO GET HIM BACK

Marshal Thompson Consulting With Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Speaker

ABOUT THE BEST THING TO DO

Chief Thompson yesterday received a telegram from La Junta, Colorado, announcing the capture of George Heckathorne, the East Liverpool desperado, who is wanted in this city on a charge of burglary on the night of March 14, having entered the store of W. R. Caldwell and taking goods to the value of $157.25. His accomplice, Tony Kountzler, is now serving a term in the Mansfield reformatory for his share in the crime.

Chief Thompson at once offered the authorities of La Junta a personal reward of $25 to hold Heckathorne and this morning received a telegram signed by George Barr, sheriff of the county, announcing that Heckathorne was in jail and the personal reward would be accepted and the prisoner held until the authorities came for him.

The details of the capture are not known, but it is thought Heckathorne was arrested for some minor offense and at once confessed to the La Junta authorities and told them he was wanted in this city.

The expense of bringing Heckathorne back to this county will run over $200 and requisition papers will be necessary. Chief Thompson did not feel like taking the responsibility upon himself and telephoned Acting Prosecuting Attorney Speaker in regard to the matter this morning and it will depend on his decision whether Heckathorne is brought back to answer for his crime.

Since the night of the robbery Heckathorne has been seen many times in different cities and the police notified, but he managed to elude his pursuers every time. The day before Chief Thompson went to Dayton Heckathorne was seen in Dennison and during the Republican state convention he was seen in Columbus. Kountzler says they parted in Chicago and the police here thought he was traveling west. He is also supposed to have been seen in this city several times, but every time it was a false alarm.

He has done time in the Ohio penitentiary and is generally known as a bad character and a dangerous person to handle. His escape from the penitentiary a few years ago is on record as one of the nerviest escapes in the history of the pen.

La Junta, where Heckathorne was captured, is located in Otero county and is on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad.

THAT TRENTON TROUBLE

LATEST ABOUT THE STRIKE AT IRONSIDES PLANT.

Claimed Now That Partners are Disagreed About What Course They Will Pursue.

Trenton, June 16.—The strike at the Ironsides pottery, Bordertown, is still on, and unless harmony perches among the owners of the concern there is no telling how long the men will be out.

The controlling interest of the Ironsides is held by Andrew Cochran, of Trenton, and David Allen.

It appears that Cochran is willing and anxious that the men should return to work, while Allen is determined that they shall not until he is allowed to have his way.

At a meeting held last Sunday, at which both Cochran and Allen were present, it was decided that the men should return to work Tuesday, and that they should be allowed 15 days on biscuit, 16 days on mixed and 16½ days on glost kilns.

At the meeting Allen, according to both Cochran and Vice President Rhead, of the Operative Potters, seemed to be satisfied. In fact, it is said that not a word of objection was spoken by him.

The men presented themselves for work Tuesday, but Allen appeared on the scene and refused to let them proceed. His reasons he kept to himself.

Andrew Cochran, in a letter written to the True American from New York, states that he is unable to fathom Allen's antagonistic stand. He further alleges that had Allen carried out his end of the agreement the men would now be at work and at the scale of time they demanded.

Vice President Henry Rhead, of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, who is acting for the men, was seen last evening and in an interview said that the men had been offered 14½ days for all kilns, but the compromise has not been accepted, and will not be.

The men are determined that their schedule shall be accepted and say they will stay out until it is.

Business Good at Trenton.

A trade paper has the following to say in regard to business at Trenton: For the off season business is good in pottery circles. The pottery operatives are suffering from the usual irritation of steady work and some trouble may yet result.

Orders are Light.

The Crockery Journal, in speaking of the condition of trade in this city says:

"Current orders among the potteries continue light. No buyers, beyond a couple seeking thirds, have been present the past week. The potteries are still actively engaged on orders, but at many plants back business will be practically finished the present week. Some, however, will require the remainder of the month to complete their order files. There are few advance orders for July and August shipment yet booked. Two or three potteries report future orders on file—one holds enough for nearly 60 days' work, to be delivered during the next three months, and these are generally dinner ware. Staple crockery still seems to maintain the call, even in the future demands that are booked, and all indications point to a continuance of this demand for at least the earlier fall trade. The future orders on file so far are chiefly from the south and southwest."

The Condition of Trade.

The market shows very little change from the condition reported last week. The receipt of new orders at the potteries continues to be only of moderate proportions, most of the jobbing and retailing trade consistently pursuing the policy of buying merely such goods as are required to meet current demands. Manufacturers, however, are still busy on old orders, many of these yet remaining unfilled, and they have plenty to do besides in preparations for the coming season, which they have all actively on foot.—China, Glass and Lamps.

VEILED WAR IN CHINA.

A Correspondent So Described the Situation.

CHINESE TROOPS GUARD PEKIN.

It Is Said They Will Oppose Foreign Troops Entering the Capital—Russia Declared to Side With China—Foreigners May Seize Taku Forts.

LONDON, June 16.—This is the situation in China as it appears to the Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Express, who cabled last evening, saying in part: "It is really a state of veiled war. The members of the foreign legations in Peking are virtually prisoners, and the Chinese troops are only restrained from attacking them by fear of the legation guards."

"Meanwhile, the ministers are altogether unable to communicate with the officers commanding the relief column, which is making an enforced and isolated halt between Tien Tsin and Peking. The walls of the capital are guarded by 100,000 imperial troops. The gates are heavily defended with modern guns. General Tung, acting under orders from the empress dowager, says that no foreign troops shall enter the sacred city."

"On Monday the ministers sent a demand to the Tsung-Li-Yamen that the gates be opened, declaring that otherwise the foreign troops would enter forcibly. To this no reply was given: A second message went unanswered, or had not been answered when the latest news left Peking."

"Sir Claude MacDonald's latest message says that the legations are capable of sustaining an effective defense, unless attacked in force."

Russia, this correspondent asserts, notwithstanding assurances to the contrary, sides with China. Some foreign troops are already reported to be in the environs of Peking; and the attitude of the Chinese troops is increasingly menacing."

"The streets of Peking," continues the correspondent of the Daily Express, "are reported to be seething with anti-foreign mobs, clamoring for the destruction of the legations and the deaths of the foreign ministers."

From Tien Tsin it was reported that the foreign forces in the harbor will attack the Taku forts and, if necessary, bombard them.

MORE MEN FOR CHINA.

Officials Considered Plan of Putting Ship Out of Commission to Obtain Them.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Owing to their natural reluctance to employ troops in China save as a last resort, and the disinclination of the war department to supply such troops except under pressure, the officials were considering an alternative proposition.

This contemplated the putting out of commission of several of the big ships attached to Admiral Remey's fleet, notably the Oregon, and the addition of the sailors and marines so released to Admiral Kempf's landing force. The big ships carry, on an average, more than 800 men apiece.

MISS TERRY MAY BE SAFE.

A Telegram Sent by Dr. Leonard Indicates It.

NEW YORK, June 16.—In response to the cablegram sent a few days ago by Dr. A. B. Leonard, secretary of the missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, asking after the safety of missionaries, the following was received from Tien Tsin:

"Tsunhaus safely arrived here. Shan tung is ordered to Chin Kiang. Peking in very dangerous state. Chinese army is quite uncertain."

The first sentence of the above dispatch was said to have disposed of the rumor circulated a day or two ago that Miss Terry had been murdered. She was at Tsunhua, and all the Methodist missionaries there have, it appears, arrived safely at Tien Tsin. Chin Kiang is on the Yang-Tse river, about 200 miles above Shanghai. The Shan Tung missionaries will go there if they can.

A WELCOME TO OTIS.

Great Reception Given Him at Rochester, N. Y.—Wheeler Present—A Parade Occurred.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 16.—"Otis day" was a memorable occasion for Rochester and the people of Western

New York who joined in extending a welcome back to his old home of the man who for about two years ruled the Philippine islands. There were, it is estimated, at least about 100,000 strangers in the city, most of whom came by rail. General Joseph Wheeler was given an enthusiastic reception at the railway station. The celebration began with the firing of a major general's salute about sunrise, and reached its climax in the parade which took place in the afternoon. The United States army was represented by about 1,300 men of the Fifteenth infantry and the Fifth and Seventh artillery, the regimental band of the infantry leading the regulars. The Marine band from Washington was also a feature of the procession.

The national guard of Pennsylvania was represented by the Ninth regiment, from Wilkesbarre, Mrs. Otis' old home, and the Sixty-fifth regiment of the New York national guard, from Buffalo, and two separate companies helped to make up the military part of the parade. There were also many civic organizations in line. In the carriage with General Otis, who was in full uniform, were President Henry H. Hathaway, of the chamber of commerce, and Commissioner Isaac G. Cutler, of the department of public safety.

STRIKERS NOT SO FIRM.

Voted to Leave Matter of Reinstatement to Arbitration, at St. Louis. Gompers There.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—By a practically unanimous vote the striking street railway union men decided to accept a new proposition presented by their executive committee.

This action was brought about through the influence of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

The new plan of settlement is, therefore, now in the hands of the executive committee. It varies but little from previous propositions, except in the paragraph which provides for the reinstatement of the men, as follows:

"Seventh—The question of reinstatement of former employees shall be submitted to arbitration."

"And in regard to section 7, covering the reinstatement of our members, the executive board is hereby authorized and empowered to reach a settlement, either through a conference and agreement with the company, or by submitting it to arbitration, as provided for in the above section."

Heretofore, all plans have contemplated the reinstatement of all the employees. This matter is waived by the new plan and the reinstatement left open to arbitration.

After the meeting had adjourned, President Gompers intimated that arrangements for opening negotiations with the Transit company were already under way.

MOST FAVORED HEARST.

Informal Discussion Held by Ohio Delegates as to Vice Presidential Nominee.

CINCINNATI, June 16.—After the Democratic state convention adjourned at Columbus, last Wednesday night, there was a meeting of the Ohio delegates to the Kansas City convention, and it was given out that nothing was done except the appointment of one committee to secure quarters in Kansas City and another to arrange for transportation.

Henry Ketter, one of the delegates from Cincinnati, stated that there was, at the meeting on Wednesday night, a general but informal exchange of views, and while some delegates were non-committal, most of them favored W. R. Hearst, of New York, for vice president.

DEWEY WOULD NOT ACCEPT.

Said He Was Not a Candidate For Vice Presidential Nomination.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Admiral Dewey, who returned from his western trip on Wednesday, will remain quietly at his country home, "Beauvoir," just outside of Washington, until the latter part of this month, when he will go to Newport to attend the session of the general board of the navy, of which he is president. Being asked regarding the Democratic vice presidential nomination he said in part:

"I am not a candidate for nomination for that office, and would not accept the nomination if offered. My position is unchanged. I stand now where I have stood for the past three months."

Rain Fell In India.

CALCUTTA, June 16.—Rain fell continuously in the Darjeeling district for about three days, ceasing about 4 o'clock the morning of June 15. Several slight landslips occurred and a number of water pipes were broken. As the railway revetments were unfinished trains had ceased running.

Widow of General Fremont Injured.

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Mrs. Jennie Benton Fremont, widow of General John C. Fremont, in leaving the dinner table slipped and fell, fracturing her hip. Mrs. Fremont is 79 years of age and her recovery consequently will be slow.

DEAD NUMBERED TEN.

Fatal Tenement House Fire In New York.

SEVEN PERSONS WERE INJURED.

Policeman Knowles Did Heroic Work. Police at First Thought the Fire Was Incendiary, but Later Believed It Was Due to Dropping of a Lighted Cigar.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Ten lives were lost and seven people badly injured during a fire which almost totally destroyed a tenement house at 34 Jackson street. The official list of the dead is:

William Cotter, 40 years old.
Mrs. Kate Cotter, 33.
Joseph Cotter, 12.
Kate Cotter, 9.
John Cotter, 3.
William Cotter, 1.
Louis Marion, 40.
Mary Marion, 37.
Elsie Marion, 6.
Mamie Cotter, 13.
The injured are:
Mamie Marion, 18 years old.
Margaret Marion, 14.
Frank Marion, 12.
—Marion (girl), 2.
A boy baby, 10 month, supposed to be of Mulhearn family.
Patrick Burns, 23.
Unknown boy, 17.

Of these Burns will surely die, it was said. The others suffered from inhaling smoke, but are in a serious condition. The police at first suspected the fire was incendiary, but later decided it was probably due to some person dropping a lighted cigar or burning ashes of a pipe.

Policeman Knowles did heroic rescue work. The scenes inside the burning building were fearful, people running around with burning clothing. Some jumped from the windows to their death.

NEARLY 80,000,000

OUR POPULATION.

Estimate Made on the Results of the Census Taking—Pennsylvania Second State—Some Cities.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The Chicago Tribune today printed a summary of the census work, compiled from the best obtainable information. The figures were furnished by 3,000 different people in all parts of the United States.

The population of the United States, exclusive of Alaska, is estimated at 78,965,742. Estimates in 25 cities were as follows:

Greater New York, 3,654,594.
New York, 2,007,241.
Chicago, 1,843,678.
Brooklyn, 1,267,158.
Philadelphia, 1,200,000.
St. Louis, 687,795.
Baltimore, 600,000.
Boston, 555,657.
Cincinnati, 400,000.
Buffalo, 400,000.
Cleveland, 390,000.
San Francisco, 340,000.
Pittsburg, 325,000.
Detroit, 315,000.
New Orleans, 300,000.
Washington, 294,674.
Milwaukee, 292,000.
Newark, 275,000.
Louisville, 232,000.
Minneapolis, 200,000.
Jersey City, 200,000.
Denver, 190,000.
Rochester, 180,000.
Indianapolis, 180,000.

The numerical order of the five leading states are New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Missouri, the last showing the most marked gain in population.

ACCOMMODATIONS

AT KANSAS CITY.

Chairman Jones Issued a Statement Plenty of Hotels and Rooms at Reasonable Rates.

KANSAS CITY, June 16.—After a conference with the leading hotel men and with the general convention committees of Kansas City, Democratic National Chairman Jones gave out the following signed statement:

The three or four leading hotels have already contracted for their full capacity. On account of the increased expense in preparing for the convention, the managers of the larger hotels felt themselves compelled to require contract for minimum time of four days, the time being at the option of the delegates making the contract, but they did not increase their regular rate.

In the other hotels, nearly 40 in number, and the 8,000 or 10,000 outside rooms listed by the local committee on public comfort, accommodations can be had at reasonable rates, and payment is only required for the length of time the rooms are occupied.

The local committee on public comfort has so systematized its work that it appears to me that it is possible for any man to be taken care of better and at more reasonable rates than has been the case of any former convention.

The general work of the bureau of information and committee on public comfort is in charge of A. D. L. Hamilton, New York Life Insurance building, Kansas City, Mo., who will give information desired, reserve rooms and make contracts for all persons wishing to attend the convention. Comfortable rooms may be secured by correspondence with him. Branch headquarters of this bureau will be established at all railroad stations in the city, and members of the committee on public comfort, wearing badges, will meet all incoming trains, and will also be stationed at all hotels to assist visitors in securing the kind of quarters desired.

(Signed)

JAMES K. JONES.

HANNA KNOWS NOT, OR SILENT,

Intimated He Was Not Aware of the President's Choice For His Running Mate—Odell Mentioned by Platt—Woodruff Talked on His Candidacy.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—The Republican national committee put in three more sessions on the contests which have been brought before it and adjourned late last night with all of the controversies practically disposed of except that from Delaware. This has been referred back to the sub-committee with instructions to again endeavor to bring the factions to a basis of agreement, and will receive final action today. An important action was the seating of the Brownlow delegates in the Tennessee contest and refusing admission to the friends of Pension Commissioner Evans. The contest was very bitter, and at one time there was the possibility of a serious encounter between Brownlow and Evans.

Quite the most interesting feature of the day was the speech of Senator Hanna in the Delaware case. Senator Hanna is earnestly anxious to harmonize the factions in Delaware and his speech before the committee urging another attempt at agreement showed his feelings in the matter.

The action of the committee in the various contests has caused it to be generally remarked that it has not been influenced in the least by the leaders. Senator Hanna's friends from the south, especially the officeholders, have received scant consideration.

In the New York case it is asserted a decision was made, and it was against Senator Platt, and other cases are instanced by members of the committee as examples of independent action.

The Republican national committee decided the contest from the Nineteenth district of Pennsylvania. It was a contest between John L. Hill, Jr., of Cumberland, and James A. Dale, of York. Mr. Quay espoused the cause of Mr. Hill, who stood for co-equal representation on the part of the counties, and Senator Penrose made an appeal for him. The result was favorable to Mr. Hill.

H. CLAY EVANS DEFEATED.

Republican National Committee Decided For Brownlow—Hanna Plead For Harmony In Delaware.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—"If you would take us into your confidence on this vice presidential matter it would simplify the situation greatly and give us an opportunity to do what the president would like," said a prominent Republican to Senator Hanna, and the reply was: "You know all that I know about it."

Senator Hanna's only observation on the situation was that until the different delegations arrived, and there was an opportunity for them to consult, no conclusion could be reached. It was thought most delegates would vote for whoever the administration wants. Senator Platt's talk of Odell, of New York, caused a little flutter here, and Dolliver took an upward turn about the same time, the cause being the impression that in case Odell should be pressed by New York, there would be a concentration on the Iowa congressman by those who do not favor the New Yorker.

The candidacy of Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, of New York, was still being kept in evidence by his friends, but apparently without any backing from the Republican managers and with the distinct disapproval of Senator Hanna.

When questioned regarding the statement made by Senator Hanna to the effect that Mr. Woodruff was not a satisfactory candidate for the vice presidency, the latter said:

"Had I any intimation from the administration that my candidacy was not desirable I would not have allowed my friends to support me to the extent they have."

Mr. Woodruff was asked if he would continue as a candidate in the event of the New York delegation failing to support him. To this he replied:

"There will be no such event."

"It is generally believed that Senator Allison has made it plain that he will not be a candidate under any circumstances."

The position of Secretary Long caused considerable comment, and it is being freely asked why the Long candidacy should proceed so far unless it has the tacit consent of the president. The fact that Long is a member of McKinley's cabinet gave rise to an undeniably widespread belief that the secretary of the navy will finally receive the support of the administration. If such is the case, however, it is being carefully kept from view. As the matter stood last night, it would seem that Long, Dolliver and Fairbanks are the leading possibilities for vice president.

Appropriate.

"I've bought a bulldog," said Parsniff to his friend Lessup, "and I want a motto to put over his kennel. Can you think of something?"

"Why not use a dentist's notice—'Teeth inserted here?'" suggested Lessup.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

sickness and death of his wife. He resolved to retire from public life. His resignation of his high office was his first step. But his determination was shortlived. His friends gathered around him and persuaded him otherwise.

The constituency of Ross county, with marked unanimity, at the October election, chose him to represent them in the popular branch of the legislature. He acceded to their wishes and was made speaker of that body.

In 1810 President Madison called him to Washington and made him commissioner of the land office, which was in need of a strong guiding hand. He thoroughly organized that important department. So prompt and energetic was he in a great emergency that when the British commander burned the national capital in 1814, he removed the records of the department intact to a place of safety, they being the only records that escaped total or partial destruction.

He continued to discharge the duties of the office during the remainder of President Madison's incumbency, and President Monroe asked him to continue. This he declined, however, after arranging to exchange positions with Josiah Meigs of Ohio, who was surveyor general of the west. The office he filled with distinguished ability up to a brief period preceding his death. In the meantime he married Miss Porter of Delaware, who survived him a number of years.

In politics Dr. Tiffin was a Democrat and was one of the moving spirits in the formation of the state government. It was agreed by his associates that he should be chosen the first governor, and his canvass for that office was begun before the assembling of the constitutional convention.

He was a man of magnetic and equable temperament, pleasing address and commanding presence, and enjoyed the friendship and confidence of political friends and opponents alike. The certainty that he would be chosen governor popularized the state movement.

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS, JR., OF WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Among the most eminent men in the early history of the state was Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr. Of strong and graceful physique and striking presence, he was a marked figure in every assemblage. His father, Return Jonathan Meigs, of Middletown, Connecticut, was a colonel in the War of the Revolution and did much toward achieving the independence of the colonies. Thrown frequently in the company of George Washington and his generals and advisers, he became closely identified with the early history of the republic following the struggle for liberty.

The younger Meigs was born in Middletown, Connecticut, in 1765, and as a youth witnessed and participated in the great revolutionary struggle. He graduated from Yale at the age of 21 and was admitted to the practice of law in his native town. The elder Meigs removed with his family to Marietta at the time of the settlement of that place in 1788, and the young barrister came with him, and that was his home to the date of his death, March 29, 1825.

He entered upon his public career in 1803, when he was chosen chief justice of the supreme court of the state by the legislature, Samuel Huntington and William Sprigg being his associates on the bench. In political belief he was a Democrat of rather conservative tendencies, favoring the new state movement, but opposed to pushing it forward with undue haste. His father, also a Democrat, of still more conservative type, was inclined to support the attitude of Governor St. Clair on the question of statehood, and this probably influenced the younger man.

In December, 1804, President Jefferson appointed him to the command of the United States troops in the Upper Louisiana district, and shortly after commissioned him as one of the United States judges of Louisiana territory. In 1806 he returned to Ohio and took a conspicuous part in the overthrow of the Burr-Blennerhassett conspiracy, under the direction of Governor Tiffin and the legislature, and in conjunction with General Gano.

He then returned to Louisiana territory for a short time, in the execution of a special mission pertaining to the military and civil organization of the district, intrusted to him by President Jefferson. Thence he went to Missouri territory on a similar mission. He returned to Ohio in 1807, where a commission from the president making him a United States judge for the territory of Michigan awaited him.

This commission he declined, to become a candidate for governor of the state at the October election of that year. On the 8th of December, 1807, the two houses of the legislature canvassed the vote cast at the preceding October election, from which it appeared that Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., had received 6,050 votes and Nathaniel Massie 4,757. Both the candidates were Democrats, and the two houses of the legislature were almost solidly Democratic.

Mr. Massie gave notice of contest on the ground that Judge Meigs was not eligible to the governorship under the third section of the second article of the constitution, which provided that no person should be eligible to the office unless he was 30 years of age, a citizen of the United States and "an inhabitant of the state for four years next preceding the election." Mr. Massie set up the absence of Judge Meigs in Louisiana and Missouri from 1804 to 1807 as constituting a constitutional ineligibility.

Judge Meigs admitted the absence, setting up the fact that it was owing to the proper discharge of official duties for and in behalf of the United States and that the office was vacant, to be filled as directed by the constitution. Accordingly Thomas Kirker, speaker of the senate, became acting governor. At the same session of the legislature Judge Meigs was again elected as one of the supreme judges of the state.

On the 10th of December, 1808, the legislature elected him to the United States senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Smith, and also to the full term of six years. During his brief service in the senate he brought the new and growing empire of the west effectively to the attention of the congress and the cabinet.

On the second Tuesday of October, 1810, he was elected governor of the state, receiving 9,924 votes to 7,731 for Thomas Worthington. In 1812 he was re-elected governor, receiving 11,859 votes, while his opponent, Thomas Scott, received 7,903. On both occasions his opponents were Democrats like himself.

During his four years (nearly) as governor, he acted with great promptness and energy in organizing and equipping the military forces of the state in the War of 1812. His state papers and public addresses were models of diction, patriotism and eloquence, and had the effect of calling Ohioans to arms, and for which he received the grateful acknowledgments of the national administration.

On the 4th of March, 1814, upon being appointed postmaster general by President Monroe, in recognition of his great abilities and his signal public services, he resigned the office of governor, and was succeeded by Othniel Looker, speaker of the senate, as acting governor.

He continued as postmaster general from March 17, 1814, to June 29, 1823, when he resigned because of impaired health, and was succeeded by John McLean of Ohio. Two years later he died at Marietta, aged 60, having spent 21 years continuously in the public service.

STANLEY GRISWOLD OF CUYAHOGA COUNTY.

Mr. Griswold was born at Torrington, Conn., Nov. 14, 1763, and died at Shawneetown, Ills., Aug. 21, 1815. During his youth he worked on his father's farm, after which he entered Yale college, from which he graduated in 1786. Shortly after his graduation he was ordained as a minister. Being an ardent Jeffersonian Democrat, he attended a Democratic jubilee meeting at Wallingford, Conn., in 1801, and delivered a most remarkable sermon on politics and religion.

He was immediately charged with heresy and retired from the ministry and was admitted to the practice of the law, remaining at Walpole, N. H., where he edited a Democratic newspaper until President Thomas Jefferson appointed him as secretary of the territory of Michigan, in 1805. Failing to agree with Governor Hull, who subsequently surrendered Detroit in the War of 1812, he resigned and came to Ohio.

In July, 1809, Governor Samuel Huntington appointed him to the vacancy in the United States senate, caused by the resignation of Edward Tiffin, his term being less than four months, and his actual service but a few days. In 1810 he was appointed United States judge for the Northwest territory by President Madison, and he was discharging the duties of that office at the time of his decease.

ALEXANDER CAMPBELL OF BROWN COUNTY.

Alexander Campbell was chosen by the legislature on the 12th of December, 1809, to fill out the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Edward Tiffin. He was at the time a member of the house of representatives, had been chosen speaker pro tempore on the 4th of December, and would have been made the permanent speaker. On the 12th of December, when elected senator, he resigned his office, and was succeeded as speaker by Edward Tiffin, whom he succeeded as senator.

While credited to Brown county he was a resident of Adams at the time of and previous to his election to the United States senate, but in that portion from which Brown was subsequently erected. In 1807-1808-1809 he represented Adams and Scioto in the popular branch of the legislature. His services in the United States senate extended from December 12, 1809, to March 4, 1813. In 1819 he again entered the legislature, being a member of the house in 1819-1820 and 1832-1833, and of the senate in 1822-1824. He was chosen a presidential elector in 1820, and cast his vote for James Monroe for president, as did his colleagues, William Henry Harrison, Robert Lucas, James Kilbourne, Jeremiah Morrow, James Caldwell, John McLaughlin and Lewis Dille.

Senator Campbell was of Virginia descent, and his early political affiliations were Democratic. He became a Whig when Henry Clay became conspicuous in public life. He settled at Ripley in early life, and his residence was the first courthouse in Brown county, and continued as such until the county seat was permanently fixed at Georgetown. He was born in Greenbrier county, Va., in 1774, and was educated as a physician and practiced medicine the most of his life. He was mayor of Ripley after having served in the United States senate. From Virginia he first migrated to Lexington, Ky., but shortly after removed to Ripley, O., and began the practice of medicine. He died Nov. 5, 1857.

JEREMIAH MORROW OF WARREN COUNTY.

This distinguished pioneer statesman was born at historic Gettysburg, Pa., of Scotch-Irish parentage, Oct. 6, 1771, and died at his home in Warren county March 22, 1852.

He acquired a fair education in the schools of the day, and migrated to the wilds of the Northwest territory in 1795. Ohio was then but a wilder-

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Today is little pay.

The street force cleaned the principal streets today.

Business in humane matters is slow at the present time.

A colored preacher delivered a sermon in the Diamond last night.

Shaw caught for Detroit yesterday and played his usual good game.

John Birkett, of this city, has been granted a pension of $12 a month.

The work of improving Fourth street will be commenced Monday.

The water works force will resume work on the new reservoir in a few days.

The township trustees have not yet appointed that new justice for the East End.

The foundation of the new Potters' National bank will be completed in a few days.

The work of improving the Wells-ville road in the corporate limits has been finished.

The Laughlin No. 1 and Burford teams are playing ball at Rock Springs this afternoon.

A new street fakir arrived yesterday and transacted business in the Diamond last night.

Officer Gill returned last evening from Lisbon, where he took Joe Conger and Arthur Cameron.

The water works department this morning finished the work of lowering their mains on Prospect street.

The members of the Junior Epworth league of the First M. E. church last evening enjoyed a trolley ride.

Miss Sarah Hall returned last evening from the University of Michigan, where she has been attending school.

Thomas Lloyd is very seriously ill at his home on Fourth street and his friends are now not permitted in to see him.

The Carnegie library commission will probably hold a meeting next week for the purpose of getting ready to advertise for bids for building the library.

There is some talk of a bowling match between the bowlers of this city and Wellsville. The match will probably not take place until cold weather.

The county commissioners returned to Lisbon yesterday afternoon and if they arrived at any decision in regard to Calcutta road they didn't give it to the public.

George Carey figured quite extensively in the 11-inning game yesterday between Buffalo and Minneapolis. He had two hits, one of them a triple, figured in one double play and had 15 putouts.

Milton Gladden, son of Rev. W. H. Gladden, of the M. P. church, and a theological student in Adrian college, Michigan, arrived home this morning on the 5 a. m. train for the summer vacation.

Foot ball is already being talked in the city, and with the rolling mill on the Southside it is thought a very good team can be organized this season, as there is usually several good players among the rolling mill men.

TO CANONIZE A SAINT.

Ecclesiastical Court, at Pittsburg, Summoned to Pass Upon Rev. Seelos,
Who Died in 1867.

PITTSBURG, June 16.—Rt. Rev. Richard Phelan, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Pittsburg, summoned an ecclesiastical court to pass upon the questions concerning the beatification and canonization of Rev. Francis Xavier Seelos, a Redemptorist priest, at one time stationed at St. Philomena's church, this city.

This court is the first of its kind summoned in the Pittsburg diocese, and such courts are rare in this country. It has been summoned by the bishop at the request of Rev. Joseph Wissell, of the Redemptorist order, who is known as the proponent in the cause, and who will submit to the court the positions and articles for the proposed beatification and canonization, and shows through witnesses and lawfully recognized documents that Father Seelos is worthy of this high honor.

Rev. Francis Xavier Seelos was born in Bavaria. He was sent to the house of the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer in Pittsburg in 1845. He was here for nine years at the time that Bishop Newman, of Philadelphia, was superior. Father Seelos went from here to Baltimore, to Annapolis, and died of yellow fever at New Orleans in 1867.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 7.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1900.

TWO CENTS

CHINA DEFIES THE NATIONS

All the Foreign Legations at Peking Have Been Destroyed By the Boxers.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR KILLED

The Powers Will Scarcely Hesitate Now to Declare Open War on Celestials.

SITUATION IS VERY CRITICAL

HONG KONG, June 16.—(Special.)—A Tien Tsin dispatch says that all the legations at Peking have been destroyed, and that the German ambassador, Baron Von Ketteler, has been murdered.

All the indications point to unconcealed alliance between the imperial troops loyal to the empress and the Boxers. The force landed by the powers is inadequate to deal with the Chinese force guarding the approaches to Peking, and it has been the aim so far to prevent a collision until the landing party under Admiral Seymour should be strong enough to force matters.

The destruction of the legations at Peking and the murder of the German ambassador, either of them enough to cause open declaration of hostilities against China, will almost certainly result in war if confirmed. The situation is most critical. England, engaged in the Transvaal, is not as ready for immediate action as are the other European powers. Russia seems to have the advantage in readiness and ability to take a leading part in suppressing Chinese disorder, and it is believed she will use this advantage to the utmost.

The interest of the United States is believed to be confined to protection of American residents and interests. The other powers engaged are using a similar plea as a cover for seeking fat slices should China be partitioned.

WEAVER BENEFIT

Was a Gratifying Success and About $150 Was Raised for the Young Man.

The willingness of East Liverpool people to assist in a good cause was shown by the attendance of the benefit at Rock Springs park last evening. It was given to raise money for the benefit of Harry Weaver, who lost his foot in an accident a short time ago. Almost 800 people were in attendance and about $150 will be the amount which the committee will have to turn over to the unfortunate lad.

The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music, a midget cake walk, which was greatly enjoyed by all, followed by a pleasant hour of dancing.

Much credit is due to those who assisted in the exercises and to the young friends of Weaver, who were so thoughtful and active in getting up the commendable affair. Those who took a leading part in bringing the benefit to so successful a result were Lyman Rinehart, George Bevington, Val Waggle, Arthur Hymes, Christ Pussey and Wink McKinney.

Mashed His Finger.

George Barton, a workman at Brunt's pottery, caught the front finger of his left hand under a die while working there this morning. The finger was mashed and it was necessary to amputate the finger at the first joint. Dr. Ikirt performed the operation.

READY FOR CONVENTION.

Arrangements Completed for Seventh Judicial Circuit Nominating Convention, Steubenville.

Steubenville, June 15.—(Special.)—A meeting of the executive committee of the seventh judicial circuit of Ohio was held at the office of the clerk of courts today, Hon. J. C. Heinlein, of Belmont county, presiding.

The object of the meeting was to select temporary officers and make arrangements for the judicial convention to be held in Steubenville September 4. Those in attendance were Messrs. J. C. Heinlein, of Belmont county; also proxy for I. B. Cameron, of Columbiana county, and S. F. Hanselman, of Portage; Judge W. G. Shotwell, of Harrison; T. A. L. Thompson, of Jefferson; Gen. Gregg, who represented by proxy H. G. Eckley, of Carroll; Dio Rogers, proxy for Homer Harper, of Lake; Judge Miller, proxy for T. B. Rouse, Monroe; R. G. Richards, proxy for C. L. Taylor, Ashtabula. The temporary officers selected for the convention September 4 were as follows: Chairman, James Kennedy, Youngstown; secretary, C. L. Taylor, Ashtabula. T. A. L. Thompson was named as committeeman to arrange for the use of the city opera house, appoint his own sub-committees and complete all arrangements for the convention. Hon. John M. Cook, of Steubenville, is unopposed for the nomination.

ANTI-SALOON MEETING.

Representative Clark and Other Leaguers Will Speak at Wellsville Tomorrow Afternoon.

The local option mass meeting arranged for tomorrow afternoon by the Wellsville Ministerial association will be held in the United Presbyterian church, that city, at 3:30 East Liverpool time. The chairman of the meeting has not yet been selected, though it is likely Rev. L. Finley Laverty will be chosen, as he is the president of the Wellsville Ministerial association.

The principal speaker at the meeting will be Hon. Thomas Clark, state senator, and the author of the Clark local option bill, which was defeated at the last session of the legislature. Several members of the State Anti-Saloon league will attend the meeting and will probably speak. Among the Anti-Saloon league men who are expected are Rev. Gilbert Raynor, of Columbus, and Rev. J. C. Jackson, of Columbus.

A NUISANCE.

Board of Health Will Take Action in Regard to the Dish Water on Church Alley.

The board of health will probably hold a special meeting Monday evening for the purpose of taking action in regard to people letting dish water run over Church alley. The water matter will be thoroughly discussed and it is probable it will be declared a nuisance and the people told to connect with the sewer.

No Arrangements.

No arrangements have yet been made toward holding services at Spring Grove camp ground this year. A number of families from this city and Wellsville will move to the ground next week.

ARGUMENTS IN BILLINGSLEY SUIT

Referee Sanderson's Decision May Be Known In a Month or not Until September.

TWO EAST LIVERPOOL APPEALS

NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Referee Sanderson, of Youngstown, is hearing the arguments in the case of Receiver I. B. Cameron, of the First National bank of this city vs. N. B. Billingsley today. The evidence was taken about a month ago. The receiver sued to recover $50,000 alleged due the bank from Billingsley, who claimed the bank owed him $3,000.

Referee Sanderson has until the first of September to return his decision, but it is expected it will be handed down within a month.

THAT HOTEL SUIT.

Mrs. Studenroth Appeals From Justice McLane's Decision in the Lena Logan Case.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Lena Logan vs. Martha Studenroth is an appeal from Justice McLane's court in East Liverpool, which has been filed in common pleas court. Plaintiff says that she was a guest at the National House, East Liverpool, on April 7 last, when she had $55 stolen from her. Defendant was proprietress of the hotel and plaintiff sued her to recover the money. Justice McLane gave plaintiff judgment for the amount and defendant appeals.

BARBER'S FIXTURES.

Furniture Company Says Defendants Are Unlawfully Withholding Goods Worth $92.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—On June 5 the J. P. Collins Furniture company sued W. H. Pollock and John B. McKinnon in Justice Rose's court, East Liverpool, to recover possession of some barber's furniture and fixtures which plaintiff claims defendants unlawfully withheld from him. The justice decided in favor of the plaintiff and defendants appealed. The value of the goods is $92.25.

Asks Directions.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Ross W. Firestone, administrator, has filed a petition in common pleas court vs. James Charters, and about 50 other defendants, in which he asks the court to direct him in the distribution of the estate of John K. Snodgrass, late of Center township.

Probate Court.

Lisbon, June 17.—(Special.)—The will of James B. Post, of Salem, was admitted to probate in Judge Boone's office yesterday afternoon.

Injured His Thumb.

Fred Margroff, son of George Margroff, met with an accident this morning which resulted in the loss of the end of his thumb near the first joint.

He was assisting in freezing ice cream and took hold of the freezer before it had stopped running, catching his left thumb. The wound, which was a very painful one, was dressed by Dr. Ikirt.

WERE BADLY SCARED.

Aroused During the Night—Two Stories About the Cause of the Disturbance.

Two young lady delegates from Pennsylvania who attended the Christian Endeavor convention, stopping at the Thompson House while in the city, had a scare last night that will cause them to long remember their visit to this city. They retired about 11 o'clock. About 2 o'clock they awakened the guests sleeping on the same floor by a number of screams which left no doubt in the minds of anyone that they were badly frightened. The cause of their screams, they said, was the sight of a colored man endeavoring to make his way through the transom of their door. Their account of the story is that when they were awakened the man was head and shoulders through the transom. When he saw, or rather heard that he was noticed, he immediately, in compliance with their vigorous commands, "took his form off that door." His disappearance was followed by a crash, caused by the breaking of several water pitchers which stood on a radiator just outside the door. The young ladies thought they recognized the intruder, but have not filed any complaint, not wishing to give the matter publicity.

The hotel people give another story in the main differing greatly from the above. They state that the pitchers, which were kept standing on the radiator fell, through the jarring of the porter running up and down the stairs, or some other cause. They say that there is no evidence to show that any one tried to get through the transom, and that the young ladies probably were nervous on account of the strange surroundings and that the dark form over the door was a hallucination. The colored man seemed as badly frightened as the occupants of the room and denied knowing anything of the cause of the disturbance.

Whether the form was real or imaginary the young ladies had a bad scare and spent a restless night.

SWEET SINGERS.

Mrs. F. C. O'Rourke and Miss Edith Caler Made Rich Melody.

Lovers of vocal music had a treat last night at the Methodist Protestant church, when Miss Edith Caler and Mrs. F. C. O'Rourke rendered a charming solo, in superb voice and manner. These ladies won the very warm commendation of music lovers in our city during their brief stay in our midst.

CLOSE OF THE CONVENTION

Y. P. S. C. E. Conference Came to an End Last Evening In a Blaze of

MISSIONARY ENTHUSIASM

HAD BEEN MOST SUCCESSFUL

The Y. P. S. C. E. convention at the M. P. church held its closing session last evening in a blaze of missionary enthusiasm. The large and beautiful audience room of the church was filled to its utmost capacity with an enthusiastic audience. The song and praise service led by Rev. W. S. Fleming, of Turtle Creek, Pa., was heartily entered into and enjoyed by the audience. Rev. J. C. Cobb, of Fairchance, who was on the program as leader of this service, was unable to be present. Among the musical features of the evening's session was a solo by Miss Edith Caler, of New Brighton, and a duet by Miss Caler and Mrs. F. C. O'Rourke.

Hon. H. R. Calhoun, of New Brighton, delivered a masterful address holding the closest attention of his auditors. This was followed by an address by Rev. J. H. Lucas, D. D., of Allegheny, on consecration. A missionary offering was called for and the audience responded cheerfully and $287 in cash was raised. The East Liverpool society gave $65 of this amount. The announcement of this splendid contribution to the cause of missions awakened the audience to the point of hearty applause.

It was agreed on every hand that this was one of the most successful conventions ever held by the union. The delegates were enthusiastic in their words of praise for the hospitality shown them by the members of the local union and the citizens of East Liverpool.

Not Until July.

The petition of the ministerial association asking that the saloons be closed will not, says the Evening Record, be presented to the council of Wellsville until the regular meeting on the first Monday evening in July. Members of the council have told members of the ministerial association that the petition could not be considered at a called meeting, and that the association would better wait until the regular meeting in July to present the petition. The ministerial association is agreeable to this arrangement and it will present the petition at the July meeting.

Union Meeting.

The young people's societies of all the East Liverpool churches will hold a union meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the First Presbyterian church and promises to be very interesting.

Car Jumped the Track.

A street car jumped the track about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon near Harker's pottery. The passengers were badly shaken up and about half an hour was occupied in getting the car back on the track.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 7.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1900.

TWO CENTS

CHINA DEFIES THE NATIONS

All the Foreign Legations at Peking Have Been Destroyed By the Boxers.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR KILLED

The Powers Will Scarcely Hesitate Now to Declare Open War on Celestials.

SITUATION IS VERY CRITICAL

HONG KONG, June 16.—(Special.)—A Tien Tsin dispatch says that all the legations at Peking have been destroyed, and that the German ambassador, Baron Von Ketteler, has been murdered.

All the indications point to unconcealed alliance between the imperial troops loyal to the empress and the Boxers. The force landed by the powers is inadequate to deal with the Chinese force guarding the approaches to Peking, and it has been the aim so far to prevent a collision until the landing party under Admiral Seymour should be strong enough to force matters.

The destruction of the legations at Peking and the murder of the German ambassador, either of them enough to cause open declaration of hostilities against China, will almost certainly result in war if confirmed. The situation is most critical. England, engaged in the Transvaal, is not as ready for immediate action as are the other European powers. Russia seems to have the advantage in readiness and ability to take a leading part in suppressing Chinese disorder, and it is believed she will use this advantage to the utmost.

The interest of the United States is believed to be confined to protection of American residents and interests. The other powers engaged are using a similar plea as a cover for seeking fat slices should China be partitioned.

WEAVER BENEFIT

Was a Gratifying Success and About $150 Was Raised for the Young Man.

The willingness of East Liverpool people to assist in a good cause was shown by the attendance of the benefit at Rock Springs park last evening. It was given to raise money for the benefit of Harry Weaver, who lost his foot in an accident a short time ago. Almost 800 people were in attendance and about $150 will be the amount which the committee will have to turn over to the unfortunate lad.

The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music, a midget cake walk, which was greatly enjoyed by all, followed by a pleasant hour of dancing.

Much credit is due to those who assisted in the exercises and to the young friends of Weaver, who were so thoughtful and active in getting up the commendable affair. Those who took a leading part in bringing the benefit to so successful a result were Lyman Rinehart, George Bevington, Val Waggle, Arthur Hymes, Christ Pussey and Wink McKinney.

Mashed His Finger.

George Barton, a workman at Brant's pottery, caught the front finger of his left hand under a die while working there this morning. The finger was mashed and it was necessary to amputate the finger at the first joint. Dr. Ikirt performed the operation.

READY FOR CONVENTION.

Arrangements Completed for Seventh Judicial Circuit Nominating Convention, Steubenville.

Steubenville, June 15.—(Special.)—A meeting of the executive committee of the seventh judicial circuit of Ohio was held at the office of the clerk of courts today, Hon. J. C. Heinlein, of Belmont county, presiding.

The object of the meeting was to select temporary officers and make arrangements for the judicial convention to be held in Steubenville September 4. Those in attendance were Messrs. J. C. Heinlein, of Belmont county; also proxy for I. B. Cameron, of Columbiana county, and S. F. Hanselman, of Portage; Judge W. G. Shotwell, of Harrison; T. A. L. Thompson, of Jefferson; Gen. Gregg, who represented by proxy H. G. Eckley, of Carroll; Dio Rogers, proxy for Homer Harper, of Lake; Judge Miller, proxy for T. B. Rouse, Monroe; R. G. Richards, proxy for C. L. Taylor, Ashtabula. The temporary officers selected for the convention September 4 were as follows: Chairman, James Kennedy, Youngstown; secretary, C. L. Taylor, Ashtabula. T. A. L. Thompson was named as committeeman to arrange for the use of the city opera house, appoint his own sub-committees and complete all arrangements for the convention. Hon. John M. Cook, of Steubenville, is unopposed for the nomination.

ANTI-SALOON MEETING.

Representative Clark and Other Leaders Will Speak at Wellsville Tomorrow Afternoon.

The local option mass meeting arranged for tomorrow afternoon by the Wellsville Ministerial association will be held in the United Presbyterian church, that city, at 3:30 East Liverpool time. The chairman of the meeting has not yet been selected, though it is likely Rev. L. Finley Lavery will be chosen, as he is the president of the Wellsville Ministerial association.

The principal speaker at the meeting will be Hon. Thomas Clark, state senator, and the author of the Clark local option bill, which was defeated at the last session of the legislature. Several members of the State Anti-Saloon league will attend the meeting and will probably speak. Among the Anti-Saloon league men who are expected are Rev. Gilbert Raynor, of Columbus, and Rev. J. C. Jackson, of Columbus.

A NUISANCE.

Board of Health Will Take Action in Regard to the Dish Water on Church Alley.

The board of health will probably hold a special meeting Monday evening for the purpose of taking action in regard to people letting dish water run over Church alley. The water matter will be thoroughly discussed and it is probable it will be declared a nuisance and the people told to connect with the sewer.

No Arrangements.

No arrangements have yet been made toward holding services at Spring Grove camp ground this year. A number of families from this city and Wellsville will move to the ground next week.

ARGUMENTS IN BILLINGSLEY SUIT

Referee Sanderson's Decision May Be Known In a Month or not Until September.

TWO EAST LIVERPOOL APPEALS

NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Referee Sanderson, of Youngstown, is hearing the arguments in the case of Receiver I. B. Cameron, of the First National bank of this city vs. N. B. Billingsley today. The evidence was taken about a month ago. The receiver sued to recover $50,000 alleged due the bank from Billingsley, who claimed the bank owed him $3,000.

Referee Sanderson has until the first of September to return his decision, but it is expected it will be handed down within a month.

THAT HOTEL SUIT.

Mrs. Studenroth Appeals From Justice McLane's Decision in the Lena Logan Case.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Lena Logan vs. Martha Studenroth is an appeal from Justice McLane's court in East Liverpool, which has been filed in common pleas court. Plaintiff says that she was a guest at the National House, East Liverpool, on April 7 last, when she had $55 stolen from her. Defendant was proprietress of the hotel and plaintiff sued her to recover the money. Justice McLane gave plaintiff judgment for the amount and defendant appeals.

BARBER'S FIXTURES.

Furniture Company Says Defendants Are Unlawfully Withholding Goods Worth $92.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—On June 5 the J. P. Collins Furniture company sued W. H. Pollock and John B. McKinnon in Justice Rose's court, East Liverpool, to recover possession of some barber's furniture and fixtures which plaintiff claims defendants unlawfully withheld from him. The justice decided in favor of the plaintiff and defendants appealed. The value of the goods is $92.25.

Asks Directions.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Ross W. Firestone, administrator, has filed a petition in common pleas court vs. James Charters, and about 50 other defendants, in which he asks the court to direct him in the distribution of the estate of John K. Snodgrass, late of Center township.

Probate Court.

Lisbon, June 17.—(Special.)—The will of James B. Post, of Salem, was admitted to probate in Judge Boone's office yesterday afternoon.

Injured His Thumb.

Fred Margroff, son of George Margroff, met with an accident this morning which resulted in the loss of the end of his thumb near the first joint.

and Was Drowned.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon the 9-year-old son of Henry Hollinger, chief engineer at the mill, was drowned just below the dam at the lower end of town. He and several other small boys were fishing from the high stone wall below the dam, when he, in some manner, lost his balance and fell into the water.
The other boys ran screaming for help and their cries were at length heard by Mr. Hollinger, who lives near by, but when he reached the place and found the body, life was extinct.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Readjustment of Prices Pointed Out as Looking Favorable—Wheat Advanced—Iron Market.

NEW YORK, June 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, said in part:

A season of declining prices is never wholly agreeable to business men whose stocks on hand are losing part of their volume. Yet there are times when return to the highest prosperity in business is not possible except through readjustment of prices. The highest prosperity the country had ever reached, prior to the panic, was in 1892, with prices averaging not quite 75 per cent of their average in 1890. After great depression for several years the highest point reached with last year's recovery was 80 per cent, March 16, but the gradual yielding has already returned the general average of prices to a shade less than 75 per cent, practically where it was with the highest prosperity in 1892.

The output of iron furnaces June 1 was 200-376 tons, an increase of 2,526 tons, making the yield only 1,638 tons less than at the highest point ever reached, Feb. 1. But the increase of unsold stocks to 339,480 tons, about 95,000 tons in May, discloses a larger decline than was expected in the new business, upon which nearly all the works and furnaces have now to rely, and reports that furnaces of considerable capacity have been already closed this month seem likely to be correct. Within a week or two the labor organizations and the employers will be discussing new demands for higher wages and shorter hours, and the closing of many works for lack of orders will have much influence about that time. Prices are gradually changing, anthracite No. 1 to $20 and Pittsburg forge, grey, 1.50. After the close, forge to $17.50, and sales of bars are reported there at 1.50. After the closing of furnaces and works has more nearly adjusted present supply to the demand, the fact that many large operations are held back until prices have been adjusted will have its proper influence.

No further change appears this week in the wool markets, although their stagnation, with irregular prices for goods beyond the most favored staples, still indicates a downward tendency. Silk and hemp also have gone lower, and the recent fall in rubber helps new business.

Wheat has been advanced nearly 3 cents.
Failures for the first week of June were, in amount, $2,118,810, of which $1,092,870 were in manufacturing and $833,236 in trading concerns.

Failures for the week have been 162 in the United States, against 150 last year, and 21 in Canada, against 13 last year.

Large Offerings of Northern Pacific, but Stock Fell Into Quietude—The Bond Market.

NEW YORK, June 16.—A number of active stocks were not dealt in Friday to the extent of a single share, and it was long after noon before such a speculative leader as Brooklyn Transit or Manhattan made its appearance on the tape at all. There was some desultory speculation in Sugar during the morning at an advance of about a point, but that stock fell back into the rut of dullness which characterized the whole market. Large offerings of Northern Pacific began to appear near 2 o'clock, at which time the directors were assembling to take action on the semi-annual dividend. The stock fell into quietude in the last hour, and hung about a point below Thursday night's level. It was not until after the close of the market that the announcement was made that only a 1 per cent dividend had been declared for the six months' period.

The action taken proved a complete surprise, and what the effect may be upon the general market it is impossible to foresee. It is a clear announcement of the formulated judgment of the directors, heretofore informally announced by officials of the company that the current high level of earnings cannot be maintained. It will be accepted also as confirmation of the reports of extensive damage to the northwestern wheat crop. The price movement in Friday's market was irregular and without significance. Not much attention was paid to the forecast of today's bank statement, but it is expected that a loss of cash by the banks will be disclosed, owing to the $3-500,000 export of gold, which seems to have been only partly offset by the receipt of cash from the interior.

New York exchange at Chicago, however, has moved upwards during the week and Friday touched 20 cents premium, showing the movement of currency still strongly towards New York. According to the statements from the leading banks the net loss in cash will probably be upwards of a million.

The bond market shared fully in the dullness of the stock market and price changes were insignificant. Total sales, par value, $890,000.
United States bonds were unchanged in bid quotations.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, June 16.—After a period of weakness early, the wheat market Friday turned strong on unfavorable crop reports, closing 1¢ 11/16 over Thursday.
Corn closed 1/4¢ and oats 1/8¢ improved.
Provisions closed steady.

from moving and set up a home. It is not boarding around, but going to housekeeping. Some folks visit awhile with Jesus, make a fashionable call upon Him, leave their card perhaps, but they have not yet gone into partnership, much less begun to live with Him. Perhaps it would startle them to think of eating and drinking with Him familiarly and constantly. At any rate, they never have thought of it yet. So far as comradeship with Him, participation in feeling and occupation and purpose, living with and fervently loving Him, all that seems so far off, so indefinite, unreal and almost irreverent.

We are religious; of course we are.
We love to take part in the services of the church, to read the prayers and responses, to sing hymns and anthems, especially if we have good voices, musical taste and culture. We enjoy the aesthetics of the service in architecture, stained glass windows, organ tones and sermonic literature. All is so nice.
We do confess our sins—"we have done many things we ought not to have done and have left undone many things we ought to have done. Lord have mercy upon us!" We are Christians.

But this abiding Christ—that is another thing. Our business, our social life, contains so much that is out of harmony with the idea of His continual presence. Really we cannot change things. We must live in the world, and so long as we do we must conform more or less to its requirements. And so it comes about that we have never lived on familiar terms of intimate friendship with Jesus.

We appreciate the churchly forms of our religion. We are attached to them and would not wish to do without them. Our presence, our money, our influence, are freely given for their support. But to live with Jesus Christ in the factory, running the next loom, in the counting room, at the same desk as senior partner, in the legislature as presiding officer, in the court as chief justice, at the ballot box as inspector, in the home, on the street, at the theater, on the ballroom floor, at the card table, at the banquet—in all business and all pleasure as leader and closest friend—how does that seem?

An Honored Leader.

Mr. Leslie M. Shaw, the governor of Iowa, was born in Vermont in 1848.
He went to Iowa when a young man, devoted to her interests. He has been superintendent of the Sunday school in his home church and president of the state Epworth League. He has been delegate to the last four general conferences and was elected as lay delegate to the one just closed in Chicago by acclamation. Being poor, he worked his way through Cornell college, studied law and practiced in the highest court in the state. He has recently received from his alma mater the degree of LL. D. It is a gratifying sign of the times to find the people honoring with positions in church and state men of sterling integrity and Christian devotion. It is as gratifying to find men high in position in political matters still true to God and securing time in the midst of pressing duties of business to attend to the work of the church in private and public.

Profanity is forbidden by both the army and the navy regulations of the United States.

Sympathy may help a wounded heart but it won't heal a wounded limb.

That fact is so obvious that you wonder why any one can offer "sympathy" as the chief feature of treatment for the delicate diseases of women. Yet women are invited to "write to a woman who can sympathize with woman," and the theme of their correspondence is to be the delicate, difficult and dangerous diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength. It is true that such offers are combined with an offer of "medical advice." But medical advice can only be given by a competent physician, and no mention is made in such offers of a physician's or doctor's advice.
It is not offered because it cannot be given. The offer is not being made by a qualified physician.

The offer of free consultation by letter, made to ailing women by Doctor R. V.
Pierce, has behind it a physician's ability. Dr. Pierce is consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Associated with Dr. Pierce is a staff of nearly a score of physicians, each man a specialist. In a practice of over thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff have treated successfully more than half a million women, who have been cured of debilitating drains, inflammations, ulcerations and female troubles. The age, experience and skill of Dr. Pierce give him a supreme advantage in his chosen field of diseases of women.

You can write to Dr. Pierce without fear and without fee. Every letter is read privately and answered confidentially, the answer being sent in a plain envelope, without any printing upon it.

HIS SON'S BODY.

ENGINEER HOLLINGER CALLED IN TIME TO RECOVER IT.

Young Hollinger While Fishing at Lisbon Dam Lost His Balance
and Was Drowned.

Lisbon, June 16.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon the 9-year-old son of Henry Hollinger, chief engineer at the mill, was drowned just below the dam at the lower end of town. He and several other small boys were fishing from the high stone wall below the dam, when he, in some manner, lost his balance and fell into the water. The other boys ran screaming for help and their cries were at length heard by Mr. Hollinger, who lives near by, but when he reached the place and found the body, life was extinct.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Readjustment of Prices Pointed Out as Looking Favorable—Wheat Advanced—Iron Market.

New York, June 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, said in part:

A season of declining prices is never wholly agreeable to business men whose stocks on hand are losing part of their volume. Yet there are times when return to the highest prosperity in business is not possible except through readjustment of prices. The highest prosperity the country had ever reached, prior to the panic, was in 1892, with prices averaging not quite 75 per cent of their average in 1890. After great depression for several years the highest point reached with last year's recovery was 80 per cent, March 16, but the gradual yielding has already returned the general average of prices to a shade less than 75 per cent, practically where it was with the highest prosperity in 1892.

The output of iron furnaces June 1 was 250,376 tons, an increase of 2,526 tons, making the yield only 1,638 tons less than at the highest point ever reached, Feb. 1. But the increase of unsold stocks to 339,480 tons, about 95,000 tons in May, discloses a larger decline than was expected in the new business, upon which nearly all the works and furnaces have now to rely, and reports that furnaces of considerable capacity have been already closed this month seem likely to be correct. Within a week or two the labor organizations and the ex ployers will be discussing new demands for higher wages and shorter hours, and the closing of many works for lack of orders will have much influence about that time. Prices are gradually changing, anthracite No. 1 to $20 and Pittsburgh, grey, 1.50. After the close, forge to $17.50, and sales of bars are reported there at 1.50. After the closing of furnaces and works has more nearly adjusted present supply to the demand, the fact that many large operations are held back until prices have been adjusted will have its proper influence.

No further change appears this week in the wool markets, although their stagnation, with irregular prices for goods beyond the most favored staples, still indicates a downward tendency. Silk and hemp also have gone lower, and the recent fall in rubber helps new business.

Wheat has been advanced nearly 3 cents. Failures for the first week of June were, in amount, $2,118,810, of which $1,092,870 were in manufacturing and $833,230 in trading concerns.

Failures for the week have been 162 in the United States, against 150 last year, and 21 in Canada, against 13 last year.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

Bond Market.

NEW YORK, June 16.—A number of active stocks were not dealt in Friday to the extent of a single share, and it was long after noon before such a speculative leader as Brooklyn Transit or Manhattan made its appearance on the tape at all. There was some desultory speculation in Sugar during the morning at an advance of about a point, but that stock fell back into the rut of dullness which characterized the whole market. Large offerings of Northern Pacific began to appear near 2 o'clock, at which time the directors were assembling to take action on the semi-annual dividend. The stock fell into quietude in the last hour, and hung about a point below Thursday night's level. It was not until after the close of the market that the announcement was made that only a 1 per cent dividend had been declared for the six months' period.

The action taken proved a complete surprise, and what the effect may be upon the general market it is impossible to foresee. It is a clear announcement of the formulated judgment of the directors, heretofore informally announced by officials of the company that the current high level of earnings cannot be maintained. It will be accepted also as confirmation of the reports of extensive damage to the northwestern wheat crop. The price movement in Friday's market was irregular and without significance. Not much attention was paid to the forecast of today's bank statement, but it is expected that a loss of cash by the banks will be disclosed, owing to the $3,500,000 export of gold, which seems to have been only partly offset by the receipt of cash from the interior.

New York exchange at Chicago, however, has moved upwards during the week and Friday touched 20 cents premium, showing the movement of currency still strongly towards New York. According to the statements from the leading banks the net loss in cash will probably be upwards of a million.

The bond market shared fully in the dullness of the stock market and price changes were insignificant. Total sales, par value, $800,000. United States bonds were unchanged in bid quotations.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, June 16.—After a period of weakness early, the wheat market Friday turned strong on unfavorable crop reports, closing 1 1/4c over Thursday. Corn closed 1/4c and oats 1/2c improved. Provisions closed steady.

EVENTS BRIEFLY NARRATED

Miss Zoni Harvey, former engraving clerk of the Arkansas state senate, burned to death, Eureka Springs.

Structural steel men made these cuts, at meeting in New York: Seams and channels, $1.05 per 100 pounds, and angles $1.93 per 100 pounds. These are New York prices. The price heretofore has been $2.40 per 100 pounds for each product.

Two hundred men of the Eighteenth infantry, who are sick, are returning by the transport Hancock, in charge of Superintendent Lewis, from Manila.

Special Services at M. E.

Special services have been arranged for to be held at the Second M. E. church on next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. Rev. Orcutt will preach Wednesday and Dr. Crawford on Thursday and Friday evenings. The meetings will be continued on Wednesday evening, June 27, when Rev. Orcutt will have charge and Rev. Earl Holtz will follow on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 28 and 29.

Arranging for a Trip.

Dr. W. E. Mowen left last evening for Cleveland, where he will make arrangements for a small party who will make a trip up the lakes to Duluth. They will leave about August 1, and will stop at several way ports.

Kiln Hands Play Ball.

A team composed of kiln hands from Laughlin No. 2 and a club from the kiln hands of the National China works are playing ball this afternoon on the grounds in the rear of the National.

New Jigger Ready.

The new saucer jigger at the National China works is completed and will be started within a week or two.

Not Working.

Owing to a break in the machinery all the jiggers at the National China works were idle yesterday and today.

Took Second Degree.

At the meeting of the O. U. A. M. Thursday evening Henry Heckathorne took the second degree.

Pay Today.

Today was pay day for the employees of the Globe, Klondyke and East End potteries.

Personals.

Mrs. W. L. Wilson returned last evening after a week's visit with friends in Pittsburg. U. Turner will spend Sunday with his wife and family at East Palestine. Dallas Mercer, who has been sick for some time, is convalescing. James Allison, Samuel Calhoun, George Barman and James Chipper will spend Sunday with friends in New Palestine.

Education in Steubenville.

Steubenville Herald-Star.

The statement made and repeated by a well known member of the school board that he has twice been approached with offers of money to throw his vote to a particular candidate for superintendent of schools, over which the board has been deadlocked for some time, is creating no end of talk in political and educational circles. The member who was thus tempted says he was first offered $250 to change his vote, and on refusing to sell himself was approached the second time with the inquiry: "Would $500 be an inducement?" This offer was also turned down, and the briber left in disgust. The member refuses to give the name of the man who attempted to bribe him, but if an investigation follows he may tell.

Pottery Whistle Weather.

The East Palestine Pottery company has made arrangements whereby they can get the weather predictions for 24 hours in advance from the United States department of agriculture. The reports are wired to Sam C. Scott at New Waterford daily and Mr. Scott will phone the report to the pottery. By a system of signals given on the pottery whistle the people in the city and on the surrounding farms, within hearing distance of the whistle, will know what the weather "probabilities" are for the succeeding 24 hours. The signal will be given at 11 o'clock a.m., fast time.

School Change.

Superintendent Burris has resigned his position as superintendent to the Salem schools and will take a post-graduate course at Harvard. J. S. Johnson, for three years principal of the Salem schools, was promoted to the superintendency, with a salary of $1,600.

An Enjoyable Reception.

The friends of Lyman Earl and wife held a reception at their home on Fourth street last evening. Mr. Earl and bride returned last evening from their bridal tour in the west. The affair was greatly enjoyed by all.

Belongs to the Trust.

The Chester rolling mill passed today into the hands of the American Sheet Steel company, better known as the trust. The last rolls were received yesterday and were unloaded and placed in position last night. The mill is now in shape to make sheet iron. About 20 men have been working on the plant for the Chester Rolling Mill company. These were discharged and quit work last night as soon as the new management took charge.

Broke Her Arm.

Mrs. Prince McNeil, of New Cumberland, fell and broke her arm near Fairview. Mr. and Mrs. McNeil had driven out to their farm near Fairview and were working in a potato patch when one of the horses started to go through where the potatoes were planted and Mrs. McNeil, in the effort to stop the horse, fell and broke her arm near the wrist. She was taken home and Dr. Beaumont reduced the fracture.

They Are Champions.

The match games of horse shoe for the championship of the Southside were finished last evening. Finley and Messer were the winners, taking 8 games out of 11 played. They stand ready to defend their claim to the championship against all comers.

Baccalaureate Sermon.

HOW IT'S BACKED.

Undoubted Reliability Is Expressed In East Liverpool Endorsement.

What you want is home endorsement. The backing of people you know.

East Liverpool proof for East Liverpool people. That's what follows here.

Surely no better backing can be had than the following from Mrs. Edmund Purton, of 233 Ravine street, who says: "I had backache, headache and other symptoms of the complaint for two years. When the last attack came on I went to the W. & W. pharmacy and got a box of Doan's kidney pills. In a very short time I was relieved. My husband, who is a painter, decorator and paper hanger of the firm of Purton & Jackson, was seized with a severe attack of kidney complaint. Some years ago he contracted a fever which left his kidneys in bad shape, and ever afterwards he had more or less trouble. When suffering last a gentleman advised him to try Doan's kidney pills, emphasizing the fact that he had been a sufferer with kidney disease, confined to his bed; his physician informed him that perhaps he would be able to get him up in two or three weeks; that he used Doan's kidney pills and in a day or two he was able to be up and about his business. My husband got a box at once. They were prompt in relieving him. We can heartily recommend Doan's kidney pills."

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Topic For the Week Beginning June 17—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Abiding in Christ.—John xv, 1-10.

In all probability it was while walking up the Mount of Olives to the garden of Gethsemane that Jesus spoke this discourse on the vine and the branches. The vineyards on the slope of Olivet would naturally suggest the beautiful figure that he uses to illustrate the necessary and vital union between Himself and His disciples. Christ is the vine, the Father the husbandman, Christian people the branches and Christian life and works the fruit to be born. And all depends upon union between Christ and the Christian. We must abide in Him and He in us, as the branch abides in the vine.

Union with Christ is a real union. The branch actually abides in the vine. It has a vital, living union with it. The union between Christ and His disciple is no less real. We abide in Him, and He abides in us. We abide in Him by faith. He abides in us by His Holy Spirit, but the union is no less vital and real. We actually abide in Him and receive our life from Him, as the branch abides in the vine and receives its life from it. "It is no longer I that live," says the great apostle, "but Christ liveth in me." This is the ideal relation between Christ and His disciples, and it is no imaginary, mythical relation, but a real, vital union.

Union with Christ is a necessity. It is necessary if we are to bear fruit, the object of Christianity. "Abide in Me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself except it abide in the vine, no more can ye except ye abide in me." The life and fruitfulness of the branch depend upon its union with the vine. So it is with the Christian. Apart from Christ he can do nothing. He depends absolutely upon Christ for power to live aright and to do what Christ would have him do. As Christians we want to live Christian lives and to bring forth Christian fruit. Let us therefore remember that these results can only be accomplished by abiding in Christ.

Disunion with Christ means spiritual death and destruction. The branch that has no living connection with the vine and hence bears no fruit is cast forth and is burned. This, in the spiritual world, is the penalty of disunion with Christ. Spiritual death awaits the man who abides not in Christ. He is cast forth—forth into outer darkness, away from God, away from heaven. Let us earnestly strive to avoid such a fate. Let us abide in Christ by faith. Let us be united to Him by an imperishable love. Let us be bound to Him by good works. Let us earnestly pray that He in the person of the Spirit, may make our hearts His abiding place, and then all shall be well with us. "In you; you in Me."

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.

The statement made and repeated by a well known member of the school board that he has twice been approached with offers of money to throw his vote to a particular candidate for superintendent of schools, over which the board has been deadlocked for some time, is creating no end of talk in political and educational circles. The member who was thus tempted says he was first offered $250 to change his vote, and on refusing to sell himself was approached the second time with the inquiry: "Would $500 be an inducement?" This offer was also turned down, and the briber left in disgust. The member refuses to give the name of the man who attempted to bribe him, but if an investigation follows he may tell.

Surely no better backing can be had than the following from Mrs. Edmund Purton, of 233 Ravine street, who says: "I had backache, headache and other symptoms of the complaint for two years. When the last attack came on I went to the W. & W. pharmacy and got a box of Doan's kidney pills. In a very short time I was relieved. My husband, who is a painter, decorator and paper hanger of the firm of Purton & Jackson, was seized with a severe attack of kidney complaint. Some years ago he contracted a fever which left his kidneys in bad shape, and ever afterwards he had more or less trouble. When suffering last a gentleman advised him to try Doan's kidney pills, emphasizing the fact that he had been a sufferer with kidney disease, confined to his bed; his physician informed him that perhaps he would be able to get him up in two or three weeks; that he used Doan's kidney pills and in a day or two he was able to be up and about his business, my husband got a box at once. They were prompt in relieving him. We can heartily recommend Doan's kidney pills."

Topic For the Week Beginning June 17—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Abiding in Christ.—John xv, 1-10.

In all probability it was while walking up the Mount of Olives to the garden of Gethsemane that Jesus spoke this discourse on the vine and the branches. The vineyards on the slope of Olivet would naturally suggest the beautiful figure that he uses to illustrate the necessary and vital union between Himself and His disciples. Christ is the vine, the Father the husbandman, Christian people the branches and Christian life and works the fruit to be born. And all depends upon union between Christ and the Christian. We must abide in Him and He in us, as the branch abides in the vine.

BADEN-POWELL'S WORK.

Some Boers Surrendered In Western Transvaal—Cronje Decided to Surrender.

LONDON, June 16.—Lord Roberts reported under date of Pretoria, June 13, giving further description of the evacuation of the Boers. He said they weakened their front by strengthening their flanks, and he directed Hamilton to attack and grand work was done by his men. Casualties less than 100. Hamilton was slightly wounded, but able to continue work. Diamond hill was thus taken and the Boers retired. They were being followed by mounted corps, June 14.

The rest of Lord Roberts' dispatch dealt with the casualties, and was not given by The Associated Press, and General Baden-Powell's movements in Western Transvaal, with 800 men, was systematically re-establishing order and collecting arms and supplies. About 600 Boers had surrendered and Baden-Powell captured 230 prisoners.

According to Baden-Powell's report, the Boers will readily discuss terms of surrender, and they all appreciate the work of pacification performed by his troops.

Another dispatch from Roberts, dated from Pretoria, June 14, told that Klerksdorp had surrendered on June 9 to armed party sent by Hunter; and that Kitchener reported that Boers, June 14, attacked a construction train, near Rhenoster, and he sent mounted troops, who drove them off, and one man was killed and 11 wounded. Roberts reported a messenger from Klerksdorp said Cronje had decided to surrender.

TEMPERANCE CONGRESS CLOSED.

Reception Tendered to Delegates by London's Mayor.

LONDON, June 16.—The world temperance congress came to a close with a reception tendered the delegates at the Mansion House by the lord mayor, Mr. A. J. Newton. The American delegates have undoubtedly impressed the United Kingdom delegates with the progress of the temperance cause in the United States, which has been the subject of many congratulations.

Prior to the reception the congress was entertained at dinner by Sir George Williams, founder of the Band of Hope union. Mr. Joshua Bailey, of Philadelphia, one of the speakers at the dinner, advocated prohibition, which he had also urged at a previous session.

The ball game at Rock Springs yesterday between the West End and Murphys was by far the best game of the season and the West Ends won by a score of 4 to 1.

Murphys went to bat and Phillips went out on a pop up to Gallagher. Chambers singled to middle, Mackall hit to Heckathorne and a neat double play followed.

For West End Smith struck out, Miller singled to middle, Brant struck out, Gibson was hit by a pitched ball, Heckathorne made a single, but Jenkins retired the side by flying out to Phillips.

In the second McShane flew out to J. Firth, C. Gallagher went out from Heckathorne to F. Gallagher and G. Firth went out from Hobbs to F. Gallagher. West End scored two in their half. Hobbs was hit by a pitched ball, stole second and went to third on a hit by F. Gallagher and came home on a passed ball. Gallagher went to second on a throw home, went to third on a passed ball and came home on a passed ball. Smith went out from C. Gallagher to McShane, Miller drew a base on balls, Brant reached first on an error by Tomlinson, but Gibson retired the side by flying out to McShane.

In the third Tomlinson flew out to Brant, Allison flew out to Jenkins, Welch reached first on an error by Smith, but Phillips struck out again and retired the side. West End received a goose egg. Heckathorne flew out to Tomlinson, Jenkins went out from short to first, Hobbs made a hit and was thrown out trying to steal second.

In the fourth Chambers made his second single to middle and was again doubled up, Mackall hitting to Heckathorne. McShane went out from Heckathorne to F. Gallagher. West End made two in their half. P. Gallagher went out from Welch to McShane, J. Firth singled to right and went to second on a passed ball. Smith singled to left and Firth went to third, Smith stole second and Miller reached first on a fielder's choice, Firth scoring. Smith scored on a hit by Brant, and Miller was thrown out from Welch to Phillips in an attempt to take third on the hit. Gibson hit to middle for a single and Brant was thrown out from Allison to Welch in an attempt to purloin third. This ended the run getting of the West Ends.

Murphys made their only run in the fifth. Gallagher flew out to J. Firth. G. Firth hit one between the second baseman and middle fielder. It would have been easy for J. Firth, but Heckathorne tried to cover too much ground and dropped the ball. Tomlinson flew out to Jenkins, Allison

Notes of the Game.

Carey makes a good umpire, but he should follow up all plays instead of deciding them from the center of the diamond. He may be correct in regard to his foul and fair balls, but if he would go over to the base line when they are hit he would prevent much unnecessary rag chewing.

McShane is certainly the first baseman of the league and saves the members of his club many errors by his fine work.

Phillips had a chance to score runs enough to tie the score, but struck out both times he was up with men on bases.

The West End club is quite a formidable aggregation when they have all their players in the game.

There were more double plays made than in any two games so far this season.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1900.

This Date In History—June 16.

1066—Hugo the Great, father of Hugh Capet, French king, died.

1599—Christopher (Kit) Marlowe, English dramatic poet, killed at Deptford; born in Canterbury 1564.

1815—Napoleon defeated Blucher at Ligny, and the allies defeated Ney at Quatre Bras, both preparatory to Waterloo. The defeat of Blucher at Ligny led to the battle on the field of Waterloo. Blucher retreated from Ligny to Waterloo. Ney's battle at Quatre Bras detained Wellington's troops and prevented the junction of the Prussians and English. Wellington retired to Waterloo to unite with Blucher. The fate of Napoleon was settled by these preliminaries, for his salvation lay in keeping the allies divided.

1866—Prussia set her armies in motion, and the single campaign war with Austria began.

1896—Edwin Percy Whipple, author, died in Boston; born 1819.

1897—George E. Barnes, a pioneer in San Francisco journalism, died in that city; born 1827.

FILIPINO GENERAL SURRENDERED

General MacArthur Reported Giving Up of a Rebel Force.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—An important capture of Filipino insurgents was reported to the war department by General MacArthur in the following cable message:

"MANILA, June 15.
General Macabulos, with 8 officers, 124 enlisted men and 124 rifles, surrendered to Colonel E. H. Liscum, of the Ninth infantry, at Tarlac, this morning. Macabulos is the most important and last insurgent leader in Tarlac and Pangasinan. MACARTHUR."

BADEN-POWELL'S WORK.

LONDON, June 16.—Lord Roberts reported under date of Pretoria, June 13, giving further description of the evacuation of the Boers. He said they weakened their front by strengthening their flanks, and he directed Hamilton to attack and grand work was done by his men. Casualties less than 100. Hamilton was slightly wounded, but able to continue work. Diamond hill was thus taken and the Boers retired. They were being followed by mounted corps, June 14.

The rest of Lord Roberts' dispatch dealt with the casualties, and was not given by The Associated Press, and General Baden-Powell's movements in Western Transvaal, with 800 men, was systematically re-establishing order and collecting arms and supplies. About 600 Boers had surrendered and Baden-Powell captured 230 prisoners.

According to Baden-Powell's report, the Boers will readily discuss terms of surrender, and they all appreciate the work of pacification performed by his troops.

Another dispatch from Roberts, dated from Pretoria, June 14, told that Klerksdorf had surrendered on June 9 to armed party sent by Hunter; and that Kitchener reported that Boers, June 14, attacked a construction train, near Rhenoster, and he sent mounted troops, who drove them off, and one man was killed and 11 wounded. Roberts reported a messenger from Klerksdorf said Cronje had decided to surrender.

TEMPERANCE CONGRESS CLOSED.

Reception Tendered to Delegates by London's Mayor.

LONDON, June 16.—The world temperance congress came to a close with a reception tendered the delegates at the Mansion House by the lord mayor, Mr. A. J. Newton. The American delegates have undoubtedly impressed the United Kingdom delegates with the progress of the temperance cause in the United States, which has been the subject of many congratulations.

Prior to the reception the congress was entertained at dinner by Sir George Williams, founder of the Band of Hope union. Mr. Joshua Bailey, of Philadelphia, one of the speakers at the dinner, advocated prohibition, which he had also urged at a previous session.

Germans Have American in Custody.

HAMILTON, O., June 16.—Maurice Tiehm, a German-American who came to this city in 1892 and at once took out naturalization papers, has appealed to Secretary of State Hay in the case of his son, Albert, who is said to be a prisoner at Damskirch, Alsace, and in great danger of being drafted into the German army, though he is an American citizen. Albert was on a visit to his birthplace when arrested.

The ball game at Rock Springs yesterday between the West End and Murphys was by far the best game of the season and the West Ends won by a score of 4 to 1.

Murphys went to bat and Phillips went out on a pop up to Gallagher. Chambers singled to middle, Mackall hit to Heckathorne and a neat double play followed.

For West End Smith struck out, Miller singled to middle, Brant struck out, Gibson was hit by a pitched ball, Heckathorne made a single, but Jenkins retired the side by flying out to Phillips.

In the second McShane flew out to J. Firth, C. Gallagher went out from Heckathorne to F. Gallagher and G. Firth went out from Hobbs to F. Gallagher. West End scored two in their half. Hobbs was hit by a pitched ball, stole second and went to third on a hit by F. Gallagher and came home on a passed ball. Gallagher went to second on a throw home, went to third on a passed ball and came home on a passed ball. Smith went out from C. Gallagher to McShane. Miller drew a base on balls, Brant reached first on an error by Tomlinson, but Gibson retired the side by flying out to McShane.

In the third Tomlinson flew out to Brant, Allison flew out to Jenkins, Welch reached first on an error by Smith, but Phillips struck out again and retired the side. West End received a goose egg. Heckathorne flew out to Tomlinson, Jenkins went out from short to first, Hobbs made a hit and was thrown out trying to steal second.

In the fourth Chambers made his second single to middle and was again doubled up, Mackall hitting to Heckathorne. McShane went out from Heckathorne to F. Gallagher. West End made two in their half. P. Gallagher went out from Welch to McShane, J. Firth singled to right and went to second on a passed ball. Smith singled to left and Firth went to third. Smith stole second and Miller reached first on a fielder's choice, Firth scoring. Smith scored on a hit by Brant, and Miller was thrown out from Welch to Phillips in an attempt to take third on the hit. Gibson hit to middle for a single and Brant was thrown out from Allison to Welch in an attempt to purloin third. This ended the run getting of the West Ends.

Murphys made their only run in the fifth. Gallagher flew out to J. Firth. G. Firth hit one between the second baseman and middle fielder. It would have been easy for J. Firth, but Heckathorne tried to cover too much ground and dropped the ball. Tomlinson flew out to Jenkins, Allison

George Heckathorne Held by the Sheriff of Otero County at La Junta.

COST $200 TO GET HIM BACK

ABOUT THE BEST THING TO DO

Chief Thompson yesterday received a telegram from La Junta, Colorado, announcing the capture of George Heckathorne, the East Liverpool desperado, who is wanted in this city on a charge of burglary on the night of March 14, having entered the store of W. R. Caldwell and taking goods to the value of $157.25. His accomplice, Tony Kountzler, is now serving a term in the Mansfield reformatory for his share in the crime.

Chief Thompson at once offered the authorities of La Junta a personal reward of $25 to hold Heckathorne and this morning received a telegram signed by George Barr, sheriff of the county, announcing that Heckathorne was in jail and the personal reward would be accepted and the prisoner held until the authorities came for him.

The details of the capture are not known, but it is thought Heckathorne was arrested for some minor offense and at once confessed to the La Junta authorities and told them he was wanted in this city.

The expense of bringing Heckathorne back to this county will run over $200 and requisition papers will be necessary. Chief Thompson did not feel like taking the responsibility upon himself and telephoned Acting Prosecuting Attorney Speaker in regard to the matter this morning and it will depend on his decision whether Heckathorne is brought back to answer for his crime.

Since the night of the robbery Heckathorne has been seen many times in different cities and the police notified, but he managed to elude his pursuers every time. The day before Chief Thompson went to Dayton Heckathorne was seen in Dennison and during the Republican state convention he was seen in Columbus. Kountzler says they parted in Chicago and the police here thought he was traveling west. He is also supposed to have been seen in this city several times, but every time it was a false alarm.

He has done time in the Ohio penitentiary and is generally known as a bad character and a dangerous person to handle. His escape from the penitentiary a few years ago is on record as one of the nerviest escapes in the history of the pen.

La Junta, where Heckathorne was captured, is located in Otero county and is on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad.

LATEST ABOUT THE STRIKE AT IRONSIDES PLANT.

Claimed Now That Partners are Disagreed About What Course They Will Pursue.

Trenton, June 16.—The strike at the Ironsides pottery, Bordertown, is still on, and unless harmony perches among the owners of the concern there is no telling how long the men will be out.

The controlling interest of the Ironsides is held by Andrew Cochran, of Trenton, and David Allen.

It appears that Cochran is willing and anxious that the men should return to work, while Allen is determined that they shall not until he is allowed to have his way.

At a meeting held last Sunday, at which both Cochran and Allen were present, it was decided that the men should return to work Tuesday, and that they should be allowed 15 days on biscuit, 16 days on mixed and 16½ days on glost kilns.

At the meeting Allen, according to both Cochran and Vice President Rhead, of the Operative Potters, seemed to be satisfied. In fact, it is said that not a word of objection was spoken by him.

The men presented themselves for work Tuesday, but Allen appeared on the scene and refused to let them proceed. His reasons he kept to himself.

Andrew Cochran, in a letter written to the True American from New York, states that he is unable to fathom Allen's antagonistic stand. He further alleges that had Allen carried out his end of the agreement the men would now be at work and at the scale of time they demanded.

Vice President Henry Rhead, of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, who is acting for the men, was seen last evening and in an interview said that the men had been offered 14½ days for all kilns, but the compromise has not been accepted, and will not be.

The men are determined that their schedule shall be accepted and say they will stay out until it is.

Business Good at Trenton.

A trade paper has the following to say in regard to business at Trenton: For the off season business is good in pottery circles. The pottery operatives are suffering from the usual irritation of steady work and some trouble may yet result.

Orders are Light.

The Crockery Journal, in speaking of the condition of trade in this city says:

"Current orders among the potteries continue light. No buyers, beyond a couple seeking thirds, have been present the past week. The potteries are still actively engaged on orders, but at many plants back business will be practically finished the present week. Some, however, will require the remainder of the month to complete their order files. There are few advance orders for July and August shipment yet booked. Two or three potteries report future orders on file—one holds enough for nearly 60 days' work, to be delivered during the next three months, and these are generally dinner ware. Staple crockery still seems to maintain the call, even in the future demands that are booked, and all indications point to a continuance of this demand for at least the earlier fall trade. The future orders on file so far are chiefly from the south and southwest."

The Condition of Trade.

The market shows very little change from the condition reported last week. The receipt of new orders at the potteries continues to be only of moderate proportions, most of the jobbing and retailing trade consistently pursuing the policy of buying merely such goods as are required to meet current demands. Manufacturers, however, are still busy on old orders, many of these yet remaining unfilled, and they have plenty to do besides in preparations for the coming season, which they have all actively on foot.—China, Glass and Lamps.

CAPTURED OUT IN COLORADO

George Heckathorne Held by the Sheriff of Otero County at La Junta.

COST $200 TO GET HIM BACK

ABOUT THE BEST THING TO DO

Chief Thompson yesterday received a telegram from La Junta, Colorado, announcing the capture of George Heckathorne, the East Liverpool desperado, who is wanted in this city on a charge of burglary on the night of March 14, having entered the store of W. R. Caldwell and taking goods to the value of $157.25. His accomplice, Tony Kountzler, is now serving a term in the Mansfield reformatory for his share in the crime.

Chief Thompson at once offered the authorities of La Junta a personal reward of $25 to hold Heckathorne and this morning received a telegram signed by George Barr, sheriff of the county, announcing that Heckathorne was in jail and the personal reward would be accepted and the prisoner held until the authorities came for him.

The details of the capture are not known, but it is thought Heckathorne was arrested for some minor offense and at once confessed to the La Junta authorities and told them he was wanted in this city.

The expense of bringing Heckathorne back to this county will run over $200 and requisition papers will be necessary. Chief Thompson did not feel like taking the responsibility upon himself and telephoned Acting Prosecuting Attorney Speaker in regard to the matter this morning and it will depend on his decision whether Heckathorne is brought back to answer for his crime.

Since the night of the robbery Heckathorne has been seen many times in different cities and the police notified, but he managed to elude his pursuers every time. The day before Chief Thompson went to Dayton Heckathorne was seen in Dennison and during the Republican state convention he was seen in Columbus. Kountzler says they parted in Chicago and the police here thought he was traveling west. He is also supposed to have been seen in this city several times, but every time it was a false alarm.

He has done time in the Ohio penitentiary and is generally known as a bad character and a dangerous person to handle. His escape from the penitentiary a few years ago is on record as one of the nerviest escapes in the history of the pen.

La Junta, where Heckathorne was captured, is located in Otero county and is on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad.

LATEST ABOUT THE STRIKE AT IRONSIDES PLANT.

Claimed Now That Partners are Disagreed About What Course They Will Pursue.

Trenton, June 16.—The strike at the Ironsides pottery, Bordertown, is still on, and unless harmony perches among the owners of the concern there is no telling how long the men will be out.

The controlling interest of the Ironsides is held by Andrew Cochran, of Trenton, and David Allen.

It appears that Cochran is willing and anxious that the men should return to work, while Allen is determined that they shall not until he is allowed to have his way.

At a meeting held last Sunday, at which both Cochran and Allen were present, it was decided that the men should return to work Tuesday, and that they should be allowed 15 days on biscuit, 16 days on mixed and 16½ days on glost kilns.

At the meeting Allen, according to both Cochran and Vice President Rhead, of the Operative Potters, seemed to be satisfied. In fact, it is said that not a word of objection was spoken by him.

The men presented themselves for work Tuesday, but Allen appeared on the scene and refused to let them proceed. His reasons he kept to himself.

Andrew Cochran, in a letter written to the True American from New York, states that he is unable to fathom Allen's antagonistic stand. He further alleges that had Allen carried out his end of the agreement the men would now be at work and at the scale of time they demanded.

Vice President Henry Rhead, of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, who is acting for the men, was seen last evening and in an interview said that the men had been offered 14½ days for all kilns, but the compromise has not been accepted, and will not be.

The men are determined that their schedule shall be accepted and say they will stay out until it is.

Business Good at Trenton.

A trade paper has the following to say in regard to business at Trenton: For the off season business is good in pottery circles. The pottery operatives are suffering from the usual irritation of steady work and some trouble may yet result.

Orders are Light.

The Crockery Journal, in speaking of the condition of trade in this city says:

"Current orders among the potteries continue light. No buyers, beyond a couple seeking thirds, have been present the past week. The potteries are still actively engaged on orders, but at many plants back business will be practically finished the present week. Some, however, will require the remainder of the month to complete their order files. There are few advance orders for July and August shipment yet booked. Two or three potteries report future orders on file—one holds enough for nearly 60 days' work, to be delivered during the next three months, and these are generally dinner ware. Staple crockery still seems to maintain the call, even in the future demands that are booked, and all indications point to a continuance of this demand for at least the earlier fall trade. The future orders on file so far are chiefly from the south and southwest."

The Condition of Trade.

The market shows very little change from the condition reported last week. The receipt of new orders at the potteries continues to be only of moderate proportions, most of the jobbing and retailing trade consistently pursuing the policy of buying merely such goods as are required to meet current demands. Manufacturers, however, are still busy on old orders, many of these yet remaining unfilled, and they have plenty to do besides in preparations for the coming season, which they have all actively on foot.—China, Glass and Lamps.

Their New Officers.

Local union No. 44 elected the following officers: President, John Dobbs; vice president, John Monroe; financial secretary, Edward Hotchkiss; recording secretary, C. J. Blumensiehl; treasurer, Walter Crewson; inspector, A. McCoy; guard, Arthur Zerick; statistician, S. S. Carnahan; trustee, Milard Cochran.

VEILED WAR IN CHINA.

A Correspondent So Described the Situation.

CHINESE TROOPS GUARD PEKIN.

It Is Said They Will Oppose Foreign Troops Entering the Capital—Russia Declared to Side With China—Foreigners May Seize Taku Forts.

LONDON, June 16.—This is the situation in China as it appears to the Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Express, who cabled last evening, saying in part: "It is really a state of veiled war. The members of the foreign legations in Peking are virtually prisoners, and the Chinese troops are only restrained from attacking them by fear of the legation guards."

"Meanwhile, the ministers are altogether unable to communicate with the officers commanding the relief column, which is making an enforced and isolated halt between Tien Tsin and Peking. The walls of the capital are guarded by 100,000 imperial troops. The gates are heavily defended with modern guns. General Tung, acting under orders from the empress dowager, says that no foreign troops shall enter the sacred city."

"On Monday the ministers sent a demand to the Tsung-Li-Yamen that the gates be opened, declaring that otherwise the foreign troops would enter forcibly. To this no reply was given: A second message went unanswered, or had not been answered when the latest news left Peking."

"Sir Claude MacDonald's latest message says that the legations are capable of sustaining an effective defense, unless attacked in force."

Russia, this correspondent asserts, notwithstanding assurances to the contrary, sides with China. Some foreign troops are already reported to be in the environs of Peking; and the attitude of the Chinese troops is increasingly menacing.

"The streets of Peking," continues the correspondent of the Daily Express, "are reported to be seething with anti-foreign mobs, clamoring for the destruction of the legations and the deaths of the foreign ministers."

From Tien Tsin it was reported that the foreign forces in the harbor will attack the Taku forts and, if necessary, bombard them.

MORE MEN FOR CHINA.

Officials Considered Plan of Putting Ship Out of Commission to Obtain Them.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Owing to their natural reluctance to employ troops in China save as a last resort, and the disinclination of the war department to supply such troops except under pressure, the officials were considering an alternative proposition.

This contemplated the putting out of commission of several of the big ships attached to Admiral Remy's fleet, notably the Oregon, and the addition of the sailors and marines so released to Admiral Kempff's landing force. The big ships carry, on an average, more than 300 men apiece.

MISS TERRY MAY BE SAFE.

A Telegram Sent by Dr. Leonard Indicates It.

NEW YORK, June 16.—In response to the cablegram sent a few days ago by Dr. A. B. Leonard, secretary of the missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, asking after the safety of missionaries, the following was received from Tien Tsin:

"Tsunhaus safely arrived here. Shan tung is ordered to Chin Kiang. Peking in very dangerous state. Chinese army is quite uncertain."

The first sentence of the above dispatch was said to have disposed of the rumor circulated a day or two ago that Miss Terry had been murdered. She was at Tsunhua, and all the Methodist missionaries there have, it appears, arrived safely at Tien Tsin. Chin Kiang is on the Yang-Tse river, about 200 miles above Shanghai. The Shan Tung missionaries will go there if they can.

A WELCOME TO OTIS.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 16.—"Otis day" was a memorable occasion for Rochester and the people of Western

New York who joined in extending a welcome back to his old home of the man who for about two years ruled the Philippine islands. There were, it is estimated, at least about 100,000 strangers in the city, most of whom came by rail. General Joseph Wheeler was given an enthusiastic reception at the railway station. The celebration began with the firing of a major general's salute about sunrise, and reached its climax in the parade which took place in the afternoon. The United States army was represented by about 1,300 men of the Fifteenth infantry and the Fifth and Seventh artillery, the regimental band of the infantry heading the regulars. The Marine band from Washington was also a feature of the procession.

The national guard of Pennsylvania was represented by the Ninth regiment, from Wilkesbarre, Mrs. Otis' old home, and the Sixty-fifth regiment of the New York national guard, from Buffalo, and two separate companies helped to make up the military part of the parade. There were also many civic organizations in line. In the carriage with General Otis, who was in full uniform, were President Henry H. Hathaway, of the chamber of commerce, and Commissioner Isaac G. Cutler, of the department of public safety.

STRIKERS NOT SO FIRM.

Voted to Leave Matter of Reinstatement to Arbitration, at St. Louis. Gompers There.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—By a practically unanimous vote the striking street railway union men decided to accept a new proposition presented by their executive committee.

This action was brought about through the influence of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

The new plan of settlement is, therefore, now in the hands of the executive committee. It varies but little from previous propositions, except in the paragraph which provides for the reinstatement of the men, as follows:

"Seventh—The question of reinstatement of former employees shall be submitted to arbitration."

"And in regard to section 7, covering the reinstatement of our members, the executive board is hereby authorized and empowered to reach a settlement, either through a conference and agreement with the company, or by submitting it to arbitration, as provided for in the above section."

Heretofore, all plans have contemplated the reinstatement of all the employees. This matter is waived by the new plan and the reinstatement left open to arbitration.

After the meeting had adjourned, President Gompers intimated that arrangements for opening negotiations with the Transit company were already under way.

MOST FAVORED HEARST.

Informal Discussion Held by Ohio Delegates as to Vice Presidential Nominee.

CINCINNATI, June 16.—After the Democratic state convention adjourned at Columbus, last Wednesday night, there was a meeting of the Ohio delegates to the Kansas City convention, and it was given out that nothing was done except the appointment of one committee to secure quarters in Kansas City and another to arrange for transportation.

Henry Ketter, one of the delegates from Cincinnati, stated that there was, at the meeting on Wednesday night, a general but informal exchange of views, and while some delegates were non-committal, most of them favored W. R. Hearst, of New York, for vice president.

DEWEY WOULD NOT ACCEPT.

Said He Was Not a Candidate For Vice Presidential Nomination.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Admiral Dewey, who returned from his western trip on Wednesday, will remain quietly at his country home, "Beauvoir," just outside of Washington, until the latter part of this month, when he will go to Newport to attend the session of the general board of the navy, of which he is president. Being asked regarding the Democratic vice presidential nomination he said in part:

"I am not a candidate for nomination for that office, and would not accept the nomination if offered. My position is unchanged. I stand now where I have stood for the past three months."

Rain Fell In India.

CALCUTTA, June 16.—Rain fell continuously in the Darjeeling district for about three days, ceasing about 4 o'clock the morning of June 15. Several slight landslips occurred and a number of water pipes were broken. As the railway revetments were unfinished trains had ceased running.

Widow of General Fremont Injured.

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Mrs. Jennie Benton Fremont, widow of General John C. Fremont, in leaving the dinner table slipped and fell, fracturing her hip. Mrs. Fremont is 79 years of age and her recovery consequently will be slow.

DEAD NUMBERED TEN.

Fatal Tenement House Fire In New York.

SEVEN PERSONS WERE INJURED.

Policeman Knowles Did Heroic Work. Police at First Thought the Fire Was Incendiary, but Later Believed It Was Due to Dropping of a Lighted Cigar.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Ten lives were lost and seven people badly injured during a fire which almost totally destroyed a tenement house at 34 Jackson street. The official list of the dead is:

William Cotter, 40 years old.
Mrs. Kate Cotter, 38.
Joseph Cotter, 12.
Kate Cotter, 9.
John Cotter, 3.
William Cotter, 1.
Louis Marion, 40.
Mary Marion, 37.
Elsie Marion, 6.
Mamie Cotter, 13.
The injured are:
Mamie Marion, 18 years old.
Margaret Marion, 14.
Frank Marion, 12.
—Marion (girl), 2.
A boy baby, 10 month, supposed to be of Mulhearn family.
Patrick Burns, 23.
Unknown boy, 17.

Of these Burns will surely die, it was said. The others suffered from inhaling smoke, but are in a serious condition.

The police at first suspected the fire was incendiary, but later decided it was probably due to some person dropping a lighted cigar or burning ashes of a pipe.

Policeman Knowles did heroic rescue work.

The scenes inside the burning building were fearful, people running around with burning clothing. Some jumped from the windows to their death.

OUR POPULATION.

Estimate Made on the Results of the Census Taking—Pennsylvania Second State—Some Cities.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The Chicago Tribune today printed a summary of the census work, compiled from the best obtainable information. The figures were furnished by 3,000 different people in all parts of the United States.

The population of the United States, exclusive of Alaska, is estimated at 78,965,742. Estimates in 25 cities were as follows:

Greater New York, 3,654,594.
New York, 2,007,241.
Chicago, 1,843,678.
Brooklyn, 1,267,158.
Philadelphia, 1,200,000.
St. Louis, 687,795.
Baltimore, 600,000.
Boston, 555,657.
Cincinnati, 400,000.
Buffalo, 400,000.
Cleveland, 390,000.
San Francisco, 340,000.
Pittsburg, 325,000.
Detroit, 315,000.
New Orleans, 300,000.
Washington, 294,674.
Milwaukee, 292,000.
Newark, 275,000.
Louisville, 232,000.
Minneapolis, 200,000.
Jersey City, 200,000.
Denver, 190,000.
Rochester, 180,000.
Indianapolis, 180,000.

The numerical order of the five leading states are New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Missouri, the last showing the most marked gain in population.

ACCOMMODATIONS

AT KANSAS CITY.

Chairman Jones Issued a Statement Plenty of Hotels and Rooms at Reasonable Rates.

KANSAS CITY, June 16.—After a conference with the leading hotel men and with the general convention committees of Kansas City, Democratic National Chairman Jones gave out the following signed statement:

The three or four leading hotels have already contracted for their full capacity. On account of the increased expense in preparing for the convention, the managers of the larger hotels felt themselves compelled to require contract for minimum time of four days, the time being at the option of the delegates making the contract, but they did not increase their regular rate.

In the other hotels, nearly 40 in number, and the 8,000 or 10,000 outside rooms listed by the local committee on public comfort, accommodations can be had at reasonable rates, and payment is only required for the length of time the rooms are occupied.

The local committee on public comfort has so systematized its work that it appears to me that it is possible for any man to be taken care of better and at more reasonable rates than has been the case of any former convention.

The general work of the bureau of information and committee on public comfort is in charge of A. D. L. Hamilton, New York Life Insurance building, Kansas City, Mo., who will give information desired, reserve rooms and make contracts for all persons wishing to attend the convention. Comfortable rooms may be secured by correspondence with him. Branch headquarters of this bureau will be established at all railroad stations in the city, and members of the committee on public comfort, wearing badges, will meet all incoming trains, and will also be stationed at all hotels to assist visitors in securing the kind of quarters desired.

LONG A POSSIBILITY.

Dolliver and Fairbanks Also In the Race.

HANNA KNOWS NOT, OR SILENT.

Intimated He Was Not Aware of the President's Choice For His Running Mate—Odell Mentioned by Platt—Woodruff Talked on His Candidacy.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—The Republican national committee put in three more sessions on the contests which have been brought before it and adjourned late last night with all of the controversies practically disposed of except that from Delaware. This has been referred back to the sub-committee with instructions to again endeavor to bring the factions to a basis of agreement, and will receive final action today. An important action was the seating of the Brownlow delegates in the Tennessee contest and refusing admission to the friends of Pension Commissioner Evans. The contest was very bitter, and at one time there was the possibility of a serious encounter between Brownlow and Evans.

Quite the most interesting feature of the day was the speech of Senator Hanna in the Delaware case. Senator Hanna is earnestly anxious to harmonize the factions in Delaware and his speech before the committee urging another attempt at agreement showed his feelings in the matter.

The action of the committee in the various contests has caused it to be generally remarked that it has not been influenced in the least by the leaders. Senator Hanna's friends from the south, especially the officeholders, have received scant consideration.

In the New York case it is asserted a decision was made, and it was against Senator Platt, and other cases are instanced by members of the committee as examples of independent action.

The Republican national committee decided the contest from the Nineteenth district of Pennsylvania. It was a contest between John L. Hill, Jr., of Cumberland, and James A. Dale, of York. Mr. Quay espoused the cause of Mr. Hill, who stood for co-equal representation on the part of the counties, and Senator Penrose made an appeal for him. The result was favorable to Mr. Hill.

H. CLAY EVANS DEFEATED.

Republican National Committee Decided For Brownlow—Hanna Plead For Harmony In Delaware.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—"If you would take us into your confidence on this vice presidential matter it would simplify the situation greatly and give us an opportunity to do what the president would like," said a prominent Republican to Senator Hanna, and the reply was: "You know all that I know about it."

Senator Hanna's only observation on the situation was that until the different delegations arrived, and there was an opportunity for them to consult, no conclusion could be reached. It was thought most delegates would vote for whoever the administration wants. Senator Platt's talk of Odell, of New York, caused a little flutter here, and Dolliver took an upward turn about the same time, the cause being the impression that in case Odell should be pressed by New York, there would be a concentration on the Iowa congressman by those who do not favor the New Yorker.

The candidacy of Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, of New York, was still being kept in evidence by his friends, but apparently without any backing from the Republican managers and with the distinct disapproval of Senator Hanna.

When questioned regarding the statement made by Senator Hanna to the effect that Mr. Woodruff was not a satisfactory candidate for the vice presidency, the latter said: "Had I any intimation from the administration that my candidacy was not desirable I would not have allowed my friends to support me to the extent they have."

Mr. Woodruff was asked if he would continue as a candidate in the event of the New York delegation failing to support him. To this he replied:

"There will be no such event. It is generally believed that Senator Allison has made it plain that he will not be a candidate under any circumstances."

The position of Secretary Long caused considerable comment, and it is being freely asked why the Long candidacy should proceed so far unless it has the tacit consent of the president. The fact that Long is a member of McKinley's cabinet gave rise to an undeniably widespread belief that the secretary of the navy will finally receive the support of the administration. If such is the case, however, it is being carefully kept from view. As the matter stood last night, it would seem that Long, Dolliver and Fairbanks are the leading possibilities for vice president.

VEILED WAR IN CHINA.

A Correspondent So Described the Situation.

CHINESE TROOPS GUARD PEKIN.

It Is Said They Will Oppose Foreign Troops Entering the Capital—Russia Declared to Side With China—Foreigners May Seize Taku Forts.

LONDON, June 16.—This is the situation in China as it appears to the Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Express, who cabled last evening, saying in part: "It is really a state of veiled war. The members of the foreign legations in Peking are virtually prisoners, and the Chinese troops are only restrained from attacking them by fear of the legation guards.

"Meanwhile, the ministers are altogether unable to communicate with the officers commanding the relief column, which is making an enforced and isolated halt between Tien Tsin and Peking. The walls of the capital are guarded by 100,000 imperial troops. The gates are heavily defended with modern guns. General Tung, acting under orders from the empress dowager, says that no foreign troops shall enter the sacred city.

"On Monday the ministers sent a demand to the Tsung-Li-Yamen that the gates be opened, declaring that otherwise the foreign troops would enter forcibly. To this no reply was given: A second message went unanswered, or had not been answered when the latest news left Peking.

"Sir Claude MacDonald's latest message says that the legations are capable of sustaining an effective defense, unless attacked in force."

Russia, this correspondent asserts, notwithstanding assurances to the contrary, sides with China. Some foreign troops are already reported to be in the environs of Peking; and the attitude of the Chinese troops is increasingly menacing.

"The streets of Peking," continues the correspondent of the Daily Express, "are reported to be seething with anti-foreign mobs, clamoring for the destruction of the legations and the deaths of the foreign ministers."

From Tien Tsin it was reported that the foreign forces in the harbor will attack the Taku forts and, if necessary, bombard them.

MORE MEN FOR CHINA.

Officials Considered Plan of Putting Ship Out of Commission to Obtain Them.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Owing to their natural reluctance to employ troops in China save as a last resort, and the disinclination of the war department to supply such troops except under pressure, the officials were considering an alternative proposition.

This contemplated the putting out of commission of several of the big ships attached to Admiral Remy's fleet, notably the Oregon, and the addition of the sailors and marines so released to Admiral Kempff's landing force. The big ships carry, on an average, more than 800 men apiece.

MISS TERRY MAY BE SAFE.

A Telegram Sent by Dr. Leonard Indicates It.

NEW YORK, June 16.—In response to the cablegram sent a few days ago by Dr. A. B. Leonard, secretary of the missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, asking after the safety of missionaries, the following was received from Tien Tsin:

"Tsunhaus safely arrived here. Shan tung is ordered to Chin Kiang. Peking in very dangerous state. Chinese army is quite uncertain."

The first sentence of the above dispatch was said to have disposed of the rumor circulated a day or two ago that Miss Terry had been murdered. She was at Tsunhua, and all the Methodist missionaries there have, it appears, arrived safely at Tien Tsin. Chin Kiang is on the Yang-Tse river, about 200 miles above Shanghai. The Shan Tung missionaries will go there if they can.

A WELCOME TO OTIS.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 16.—"Otis day" was a memorable occasion for Rochester and the people of Western

New York who joined in extending a welcome back to his old home of the man who for about two years ruled the Philippine islands. There were, it is estimated, at least about 100,000 strangers in the city, most of whom came by rail. General Joseph Wheeler was given an enthusiastic reception at the railway station. The celebration began with the firing of a major general's salute about sunrise, and reached its climax in the parade which took place in the afternoon. The United States army was represented by about 1,300 men of the Fifteenth infantry and the Fifth and Seventh artillery, the regimental band of the infantry leading the regulars. The Marine band from Washington was also a feature of the procession.

The national guard of Pennsylvania was represented by the Ninth regiment, from Wilkes-Barre, Mrs. Otis' old home, and the Sixty-fifth regiment of the New York national guard, from Buffalo, and two separate companies helped to make up the military part of the parade. There were also many civic organizations in line. In the carriage with General Otis, who was in full uniform, were President Henry H. Hathaway, of the chamber of commerce, and Commissioner Isaac G. Cutler, of the department of public safety.

STRIKERS NOT SO FIRM.

Voted to Leave Matter of Reinstatement to Arbitration, at St. Louis, Gompers There.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—By a practically unanimous vote the striking street railway union men decided to accept a new proposition presented by their executive committee.

This action was brought about through the influence of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

The new plan of settlement is, therefore, now in the hands of the executive committee. It varies but little from previous propositions, except in the paragraph which provides for the reinstatement of the men, as follows:

"Seventh—The question of reinstatement of former employees shall be submitted to arbitration.

"And in regard to section 7, covering the reinstatement of our members, the executive board is hereby authorized and empowered to reach a settlement, either through a conference and agreement with the company, or by submitting it to arbitration, as provided for in the above section."

Heretofore, all plans have contemplated the reinstatement of all the employees. This matter is waived by the new plan and the reinstatement left open to arbitration.

After the meeting had adjourned, President Gompers intimated that arrangements for opening negotiations with the Transit company were already under way.

MOST FAVORED HEARST.

Informal Discussion Held by Ohio Delegates as to Vice Presidential Nominee.

CINCINNATI, June 16.—After the Democratic state convention adjourned at Columbus, last Wednesday night, there was a meeting of the Ohio delegates to the Kansas City convention, and it was given out that nothing was done except the appointment of one committee to secure quarters in Kansas City and another to arrange for transportation.

Henry Ketter, one of the delegates from Cincinnati, stated that there was, at the meeting on Wednesday night, a general but informal exchange of views, and while some delegates were non-committal, most of them favored W. R. Hearst, of New York, for vice president.

DEWEY WOULD NOT ACCEPT.

Said He Was Not a Candidate For Vice Presidential Nomination.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Admiral Dewey, who returned from his western trip on Wednesday, will remain quietly at his country home, "Beauvoir," just outside of Washington, until the latter part of this month, when he will go to Newport to attend the session of the general board of the navy, of which he is president. Being asked regarding the Democratic vice presidential nomination he said in part:

"I am not a candidate for nomination for that office, and would not accept the nomination if offered. My position is unchanged. I stand now where I have stood for the past three months."

Rain Fell In India.

CALCUTTA, June 16.—Rain fell continuously in the Darjeeling district for about three days, ceasing about 4 o'clock the morning of June 15. Several slight landslips occurred and a number of water pipes were broken. As the railway revetments were unfinished trains had ceased running.

Widow of General Fremont Injured.

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Mrs. Jennie Benton Fremont, widow of General John C. Fremont, in leaving the dinner table slipped and fell, fracturing her hip. Mrs. Fremont is 79 years of age and her recovery consequently will be slow.

DEAD NUMBERED TEN.

Fatal Tenement House Fire In New York.

SEVEN PERSONS WERE INJURED.

Policeman Knowles Did Heroic Work. Police at First Thought the Fire Was Incendiary, but Later Believed It Was Due to Dropping of a Lighted Cigar.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Ten lives were lost and seven people badly injured during a fire which almost totally destroyed a tenement house at 34 Jackson street. The official list of the dead is:

William Cotter, 40 years old.
Mrs. Kate Cotter, 33.
Joseph Cotter, 12.
Kate Cotter, 9.
John Cotter, 3.
William Cotter, 1.
Louis Marion, 40.
Mary Marion, 37.
Elsie Marion, 6.
Mamie Cotter, 13.
The injured are:
Mamie Marion, 18 years old.
Margaret Marion, 14.
Frank Marion, 12.
—Marion (girl), 2.
A boy baby, 10 month, supposed to be of Mulhearn family.
Patrick Burns, 23.
Unknown boy, 17.

Of these Burns will surely die, it was said. The others suffered from inhaling smoke, but are in a serious condition. The police at first suspected the fire was incendiary, but later decided it was probably due to some person dropping a lighted cigar or burning ashes of a pipe.

Policeman Knowles did heroic rescue work. The scenes inside the burning building were fearful, people running around with burning clothing. Some jumped from the windows to their death.

If such is the case, however, it is being carefully kept from view. As the matter stood last night, it would seem that Long, Dolliver and Fairbanks are the leading possibilities for vice president.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

sickness and death of his wife. He resolved to retire from public life. His resignation of his high office was his first step. But his determination was shortlived. His friends gathered around him and persuaded him otherwise.

The constituency of Ross county, with marked unanimity, at the October election, chose him to represent them in the popular branch of the legislature. He acceded to their wishes and was made speaker of that body.

In 1810 President Madison called him to Washington and made him commissioner of the land office, which was in need of a strong guiding hand. He thoroughly organized that important department. So prompt and energetic was he in a great emergency that when the British commander burned the national capital in 1814, he removed the records of the department intact to a place of safety, they being the only records that escaped total or partial destruction.

He continued to discharge the duties of the office during the remainder of President Madison's incumbency, and President Monroe asked him to continue. This he declined, however, after arranging to exchange positions with Josiah Meigs of Ohio, who was surveyor general of the west. The office he filled with distinguished ability up to a brief period preceding his death. In the meantime he married Miss Porter of Delaware, who survived him a number of years.

In politics Dr. Tiffin was a Democrat and was one of the moving spirits in the formation of the state government. It was agreed by his associates that he should be chosen the first governor, and his canvass for that office was begun before the assembling of the constitutional convention.

He was a man of magnetic and equable temperament, pleasing address and commanding presence, and enjoyed the friendship and confidence of political friends and opponents alike. The certainty that he would be chosen governor popularized the state movement.

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS, JR., OF WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Among the most eminent men in the early history of the state was Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr. Of strong and graceful physique and striking presence, he was a marked figure in every assemblage. His father, Return Jonathan Meigs, of Middletown, Connecticut, was a colonel in the War of the Revolution and did much toward achieving the independence of the colonies. Thrown frequently in the company of George Washington and his generals and advisers, he became closely identified with the early history of the republic following the struggle for liberty.

The younger Meigs was born in Middletown, Connecticut, in 1765, and as a youth witnessed and participated in the great revolutionary struggle. He graduated from Yale at the age of 21 and was admitted to the practice of law in his native town. The elder Meigs removed with his family to Marietta, at the time of the settlement of that place in 1788, and the young barrister came with him, and that was his home to the date of his death, March 29, 1825.

He entered upon his public career in 1803, when he was chosen chief justice of the supreme court of the state by the legislature, Samuel Huntington and William Sprigg being his associates on the bench. In political belief he was a Democrat of rather conservative tendencies, favoring the new state movement, but opposed to pushing it forward with undue haste. His father, also a Democrat, of still more conservative type, was inclined to support the attitude of Governor St. Clair on the question of statehood, and this probably influenced the younger man.

In December, 1804, President Jefferson appointed him to the command of the United States troops in the Upper Louisiana district, and shortly after commissioned him as one of the United States judges of Louisiana territory. In 1806 he returned to Ohio and took a conspicuous part in the overthrow of the Burr-Blennerhassett conspiracy, under the direction of Governor Tiffin and the legislature, and in conjunction with General Gano.

He then returned to Louisiana territory for a short time, in the execution of a special mission pertaining to the military and civil organization of the district, intrusted to him by President Jefferson. Thence he went to Missouri territory on a similar mission. He returned to Ohio in 1807, where a commission from the president making him a United States judge for the territory of Michigan awaited him.

This commission he declined, to become a candidate for governor of the state at the October election of that year. On the 8th of December, 1807, the two houses of the legislature canvassed the vote cast at the preceding October election, from which it appeared that Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., had received 6,050 votes and Nathaniel Massie 4,757. Both the candidates were Democrats, and the two houses of the legislature were almost solidly Democratic.

Mr. Massie gave notice of contest on the ground that Judge Meigs was not eligible to the governorship under the third section of the second article of the constitution, which provided that no person should be eligible to the office unless he was 30 years of age, a citizen of the United States and "an inhabitant of the state for four years next preceding the election." Mr. Massie set up the absence of Judge Meigs in Louisiana and Missouri from 1804 to 1807 as constituting a constitutional ineligibility.

Judge Meigs admitted the absence, setting up the fact that it was owing to

and that the office was vacant, to be filled as directed by the constitution. Accordingly Thomas Kirker, speaker of the senate, became acting governor. At the same session of the legislature Judge Meigs was again elected as one of the supreme judges of the state.

On the 10th of December, 1808, the legislature elected him to the United States senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Smith, and also to the full term of six years. During his brief service in the senate he brought the new and growing empire of the west effectively to the attention of the congress and the cabinet.

On the second Tuesday of October, 1810, he was elected governor of the state, receiving 9,924 votes to 7,731 for Thomas Worthington. In 1812 he was re-elected governor, receiving 11,859 votes, while his opponent, Thomas Scott, received 7,903. On both occasions his opponents were Democrats like himself.

During his four years (nearly) as governor, he acted with great promptness and energy in organizing and equipping the military forces of the state in the War of 1812. His state papers and public addresses were models of diction, patriotism and eloquence, and had the effect of calling Ohioans to arms, and her which he received the grateful acknowledgments of the national administration.

On the 4th of March, 1814, upon being appointed postmaster general by President Monroe, in recognition of his great abilities and his signal public services, he resigned the office of governor, and was succeeded by Othniel Looker, speaker of the senate, as acting governor.

He continued as postmaster general from March 17, 1814, to June 29, 1823, when he resigned because of impaired health, and was succeeded by John McLean of Ohio. Two years later he died at Marietta, aged 60, having spent 21 years continuously in the public service.

STANLEY GRISWOLD OF CUYAHOGA COUNTY.

Mr. Griswold was born at Torrington, Conn., Nov. 14, 1763, and died at Shawneetown, Ills., Aug. 21, 1815. During his youth he worked on his father's farm, after which he entered Yale college, from which he graduated in 1786. Shortly after his graduation he was ordained as a minister. Being an ardent Jeffersonian Democrat, he attended a Democratic jubilee meeting at Wallingford, Conn., in 1801, and delivered a most remarkable sermon on politics and religion.

He was immediately charged with heresy and retired from the ministry and was admitted to the practice of the law, remaining at Walpole, N. H., where he edited a Democratic newspaper until President Thomas Jefferson appointed him as secretary of the territory of Michigan, in 1805. Failing to agree with Governor Hull, who subsequently surrendered Detroit in the War of 1812, he resigned and came to Ohio.

In July, 1809, Governor Samuel Huntington appointed him to the vacancy in the United States senate, caused by the resignation of Edward Tiffin, his term being less than four months, and his actual service but a few days. In 1810 he was appointed United States judge for the Northwest territory by President Madison, and he was discharging the duties of that office at the time of his decease.

ALEXANDER CAMPBELL OF BROWN COUNTY.

Alexander Campbell was chosen by the legislature on the 12th of December, 1809, to fill out the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Edward Tiffin. He was at the time a member of the house of representatives, had been chosen speaker pro tempore on the 4th of December, and would have been made the permanent speaker. On the 12th of December, when elected senator, he resigned his office, and was succeeded as speaker by Edward Tiffin, whom he succeeded as senator.

While credited to Brown county he was a resident of Adams at the time of and previous to his election to the United States senate, but in that portion from which Brown was subsequently erected. In 1807-1808-1809 he represented Adams and Scioto in the popular branch of the legislature. His services in the United States senate extended from December 12, 1809, to March 4, 1813. In 1819 he again entered the legislature, being a member of the house in 1819-1820 and 1832-1833, and of the senate in 1822-1824. He was chosen a presidential elector in 1820, and cast his vote for James Monroe for president, as did his colleagues, William Henry Harrison, Robert Lucas, James Kilbourne, Jeremiah Morrow, James Caldwell, John McLaughlin and Lewis Dille.

Senator Campbell was of Virginia descent, and his early political affiliations were Democratic. He became a Whig when Henry Clay became conspicuous in public life. He settled at Ripley in early life, and his residence was the first courthouse in Brown county, and continued as such until the county seat was permanently fixed at Georgetown. He was born in Greenbrier county, Va., in 1774, and was educated as a physician and practiced medicine the most of his life. He was mayor of Ripley after having served in the United States senate. From Virginia he first migrated to Lexington, Ky., but shortly after removed to Ripley, O., and began the practice of medicine. He died Nov. 5, 1857.

JEREMIAH MORROW OF WARREN COUNTY.

This distinguished pioneer statesman was born at historic Gettysburg, Pa., of Scotch-Irish parentage, Oct. 6, 1771, and died at his home in Warren county March 22, 1852.

He acquired a fair education in the schools of the day, and migrated to the wilds of the Northwest territory in 1795. Ohio was then but a wilder-

Thence he went to Missouri territory on a similar mission. He returned to Ohio in 1807, where a commission from the president making him a United States judge for the territory of Michigan awaited him.

This commission he declined, to become a candidate for governor of the state at the October election of that year. On the 8th of December, 1807, the two houses of the legislature canvassed the vote cast at the preceding October election, from which it appeared that Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., had received 6,050 votes and Nathaniel Massie 4,757. Both the candidates were Democrats, and the two houses of the legislature were almost solidly Democratic.

Mr. Massie gave notice of contest on the ground that Judge Meigs was not eligible to the governorship under the third section of the second article of the constitution, which provided that no person should be eligible to the office unless he was 30 years of age, a citizen of the United States and "an inhabitant of the state for four years next preceding the election." Mr. Massie set up the absence of Judge Meigs in Louisiana and Missouri from 1804 to 1807 as constituting a constitutional infirmity. Judge Meigs admitted the absence, setting out that it was owing to government and for the government of the state of Ohio; that it did not make him a nonresident of the state within the meaning of the constitution, and that he had in fact been an inhabitant, a resident and citizen of the state for more than thirteen years previous to the day of the election.

An act was passed by the legislature providing for the trial of the contest before the two houses in joint assembly. The hearing of the case was upon the above agreed statement of facts, and argument of counsel. The vote in joint assembly was 24 in favor of sustaining the contest and 20 against. The vote of the senate was 5 to sustain and 9 opposed, and in the house, to sustain 19, opposed 11. Speaker Thomas Kirker of the senate, who was interested in the result of the contest did not vote.

While Meigs lost the governorship, Massie did not gain it, the legislature declared by a joint resolution that there had been a failure to elect and that the office was vacant, to be filled as directed by the constitution. Accordingly Thomas Kirker, speaker of the senate, became acting governor. At the same session of the legislature Judge Meigs was again elected as one of the supreme judges of the state.

On the 10th of December, 1808, the legislature elected him to the United States senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Smith, and also to the full term of six years. Richard Phelan, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Pittsburg, summoned an ecclesiastical court to pass upon the questions concerning the beatification and canonization of Rev. Francis Xavier Seelos, a Redemptorist priest, at one time stationed at St. Philomena's church, this city.

This court is the first of its kind summoned in the Pittsburg diocese, and such courts are rare in this country. It has been summoned by the bishop at the request of Rev. Joseph Wissell, of the Redemptorist order, who is known as the proponent in the cause, and who will submit to the court the positions and articles for the proposed beatification and canonization, and shows through witnesses and lawfully recognized documents that Father Seelos is worthy of this high honor.

Rev. Francis Xavier Seelos was born in Bavaria. He was sent to the house of the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer in Pittsburg in 1845. He was here for nine years at the time that Bishop Newman, of Philadelphia, was superior. Father Seelos went from here to Baltimore, to Annapolis, and died of yellow fever at New Orleans in 1867.

TAYLOR TO BE PROTECTED.

Friends Say They Will Not Let Officers Seize Him.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 16.—Friends of W. S. Taylor will be of the party going to the Philadelphia convention which he Kentuckian is expected to join, say that they will see to it that Mr. Taylor is not taken enroute and carried to Kentucky by the officers of that state.

They declare they will resist to the utmost an attempt to get possession of Taylor and will go prepared to defend him. Mr. Taylor is still in the city and is completing his arrangements to attend the convention.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Today is little pay.

The street force cleaned the principal streets today.

Business in humane matters is slow at the present time.

A colored preacher delivered a sermon in the Diamond last night.

Shaw caught for Detroit yesterday and played his usual good game.

John Birkett, of this city, has been granted a pension of $12 a month.

The work of improving Fourth street will be commenced Monday.

The water works force will resume work on the new reservoir in a few days.

The township trustees have not yet appointed that new justice for the East End.

The foundation of the new Potters' National bank will be completed in a few days.

The work of improving the Wells-ville road in the corporate limits has been finished.

The Laughlin No. 1 and Burford teams are playing ball at Rock Springs this afternoon.

A new street fakir arrived yesterday and transacted business in the Diamond last night.

Officer Gill returned last evening from Lisbon, where he took Joe Conger and Arthur Cameron.

The water works department this morning finished the work of lowering their mains on Prospect street.

The members of the Junior Epworth league of the First M. E. church last evening enjoyed a trolley ride.

Miss Sarah Hall returned last evening from the University of Michigan, where she has been attending school.

Thomas Lloyd is very seriously ill at his home on Fourth street and his friends are now not permitted in to see him.

The Carnegie library commission will probably hold a meeting next week for the purpose of getting ready to advertise for bids for building the library.

There is some talk of a bowling match between the bowlers of this city and Wellsville. The match will probably not take place until cold weather.

The county commissioners returned to Lisbon yesterday afternoon and if they arrived at any decision in regard to Calcutta road they didn't give it to the public.

George Carey figured quite extensively in the 11-inning game yesterday between Buffalo and Minneapolis. He had two hits, one of them a triple, figured in one double play and had 15 putouts.

Milton Gladden, son of Rev. W. H. Gladden, of the M. P. church, and a theological student in Adrian college, Michigan, arrived home this morning on the 5 a. m. train for the summer vacation.

Foot ball is already being talked in the city, and with the rolling mill on the Southside it is thought a very good team can be organized this season, as there is usually several good players among the rolling mill men.
